Love and its Hidden History. Also, the Master Passion; or, the curtain raised on woman, love and marriage ... Sixth edition ... enlarged Paschal Beverly RANDOLPH 1873

Women in Love D.H. Lawrence 2000-01-04 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best novels of all time With an Introduction by Joyce Carol Oates foreword by the author Commentary by Carl van Doren, Rebecca West, Aldous Huxley, and Henry Miller It is . . . the world of the poets and the preponderance of the poet in [Lawrence] that is the key to his work. He magnified and deepened experience in the manner of a poet," wrote Anaïs Nin in 1934. Privately printed in 1920 and published commercially in 1921, Women in Love is the novel Lawrence himself considered his masterpiece. Set in the English Midlands, the novel traces the lives of two sisters, Ursula and Gudrun, and the men with whom they fall in love. All four yearn for fulfillment in their romantic lives, yet struggle in a world that is increasingly violent and destructive. Commenting on the novel, which was composed in the midst of the First World War in 1916, Lawrence wrote, "The bitterness of the war may be taken for granted in the characters." Rich in symbolism and lyrical prose, Women in Love is a complex meditation on the meaning of love in the modern world. To the critic Alfred Kazin, "No other writer of [Lawrence's] imaginative standing has in our time written books that are so open to life." D. H. LAWRENCE (1885-1930), the son of a coal miner and a lace worker, completed his formal studies at University College, Nottingham, in 1908 and began teaching at a boys' school. By 1912, he had abandoned teaching to write full-time. His novels include The White Peacock (1911), The Trespasser (1912), Sons and Lovers (1913), The Rainbow (1915), Women in Love (1920), The Plumed Serpent (1926), and Lady Chatterley's Lover (1928), which was banned as pornographic in England until 1960.

Law in the Courts of Love Peter Goodrich 2002-11 Law in the Courts of Love traces the literary history and diversity of past legal systems. These 'minor jurisprudences' range from the spiritual laws of the courts of conscience to the code and judgements of love handed down by women's courts in medieval France. Professor Goodrich presents the 15th Century Courts of Love in Paris as one instance of an alternative jurisdiction drawn from the diversities of the legal and literary past. Their textual records are correspondingly mixed in genre, being in the form of poems, narratives, plays, treaties and judicial decisions. More broadly, these studies trace certain boundaries of modern law and make up one of many forms of legal knowledge which escape today's vision of a unitary law. The author believes that the unquestionable faith in a unity law and its distance from person and emotion is precisely what makes impossible the attention to the individual that justice ultimately requires. Law in the Courts of Love shows how the historical diversity of forms and procedures of law can competently form the basis for critical revisions of contemporary legal doctrine and professional practice. This book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students of law and literature, critical legal studies and legal history, or anyone wishing to specialise in feminist legal theory.

The Odd Women George Gissing 2019-06-19 The Odd Women is a Victorian novel which deals with themes such as the role of women in society, marriage, morals and the early feminist movement. There was the notion in Victorian England that there was an excess of one million women over men. This meant there were "odd" women left over at the end of the equation when the other men and women had paired off in marriage. A cross-section of women dealing with this problem are described in "The Odd Women" and it can be inferred that their lifestyles also set them apart as odd in the sense of strange.

providing 'quick fix' tips, real women (of all shapes and sizes) are transformed in a simple step-by-step process.

The Meanings of Love Bob Wagoner 1997-05-21 This introductory text offers a clear, concise look at the philosophy of love. The author's presentation assumes no previous knowledge of philosophy, providing the humanities student with an insightful introduction to some of the most prominent writers and philosophers, both ancient and modern. From the dialogues of Plato to the writings of feminist philosopher Luce Irigaray, Wagoner presents six major ideas of love: erotic love, Christian love, romantic love, moral love, love as power, and mutual love. This study asserts that even though we have only one word for love, six fundamentally different meanings can be distinguished: erotic love, Christian love, romantic love, moral love, love as power, and mutual love. Wagoner identifies each of these ideas of love in terms of the special meaning it brings to experience. No one meaning is comprehensive. Each is shown to have a logic and legitimacy of its own. Why each view seems real and compelling is the focus of separate discussions, as well as the price that may be exacted by each idea. The extent to which these ideas throw light on actual experience is striking, but the book is not an empirical or psychological inquiry. How one self finds itself in another is first defined and then explored further to see how this shapes the rational and sexual aspects of life.

Leg over Leg Ahmad Faris al-Shidyaq 2013-08-23 Leg over Leg recounts the life, from birth to middle age, of 'the Fariyaq,' alter ego of Ahmad Faris al-Shidyaq, a pivotal figure in the intellectual and literary history of the modern Arab world. The always edifying and often hilarious adventures of the Fariyaq, as he moves from his native Lebanon to Egypt, Malta, Tunis, England and France, provide the author with grist for wide-ranging discussions of the intellectual and social issues of his time, including the ignorance and corruption of the Lebanese religious and secular establishments, freedom of conscience, women's rights, sexual relationships between men and women, the manners and customs of Europeans and Middle Easterners, and the differences between contemporary European and Arabic literatures. Al-Shidyaq also celebrates the genius and beauty of the classical Arabic language. Akin to Sterne and Rabelais in his satirical outlook and technical inventiveness, al-Shidyaq produced in Leg Over Leg a work that is unique and unclassifiable. It was initially widely condemned for its attacks on authority, its religious skepticism, and its "obscenity," and later editions were often abridged. This is the first English translation of the work and reproduces the original Arabic text, published under the author's supervision in 1855.

A MARRIED MAN ... PERCEPTIONS ABOUT ... LOVE Adrian Gabriel Dumitru And what if one day ... after stop loving someone that you liked so, so much ... you decide to replace that big whole from your soul with loving all the people from the timeline of your life?! Today i believe that to understand the life itself we need to experience ... love ... in whatever form it might appear to us. It sounds weird, or even as a total nonsense ... but in the end ... following the paths of life .... I always realized that everything comes by itself. Not so long time ago, before becoming 40 .... I heard lots of strange ideas about the change is happening in man's perspective about life ... the next second he comes to this age. In fact ... the truth is that only 2 versions worth to be mentioned ... and i saw that at all my friends that had this age. One theory was that we start to have all types of medical problems ... and the other one was that the man starts to be obsessed by love ... love stories .... and all the women from the timeline of his life. I never had medical problems in my life ... so i totally ignored the first theory ....and on another hand, working in sales for more than 20 years ... i met thousands of ladies ... but never had the intention to cheat my wife. So ... i totally ignored both theories, but just few days before becoming 40 ... a very beautiful lady ... appeared in my life. She was the most unexpected person i could dream that i would start a love story with ... but ... it happened. The theory was right ... or at least one of it. I fell in love ... with that amazing soul ... and i started to write all my feelings and everything related to us. I wrote so much ... that one day i realized that i published 10 books carrying the word ... love ... inside of the title. But ... same as any other story from the history of the human being ... my love story had a beginning, the story itself .... and the end. Today ... looking back in time, i see just the 10 books i wrote ... but i would not like to read them again. Never ... In my last book about love stories ... "Loving, but not understanding where the love goes" ... the last 2 essays i wrote tell everything it was in my heart and soul ... "I miss you a lot, but i don't want you back in my life! Never again!" ... and "Awakening can be obtained at the end of the love story!". I left the love story dissatisfied of all happened ... but still ... i was chasing for love. Getting back into her arms ... was useless. I knew it ... and even if i lied myself for such a long time ... she was the same as my wife ... a shrew ... or at least this is how i saw both of them. I decided to let my life continue ... near my family, totally forgetting the love story .... but still not ignoring my huge desire for ... love. The smaller kid ....told me one day while arguing with my wife ... " You are not allowed to leave us. You are our parents and you don't have the right to do that." Ignoring those words ... was equal with betrayal. .... A huge one. So i remained near my wife and kids ... doing my duty, understanding the dharmic side of life ... but still something was whispering me all the time ..."love, love, love, love ... love ...." I thought i need to find another lady ... but my wife was paying attention now to any small detail ... so i could not repeat the love story i had with that crazy lady. I was meditating a lot. On the scene of my life, i met lots of other people in the same situation as myself ... that ended the love story and .... somehow started to be in a relationship with themselves. They discovered a new path .... the one of self love. But i did not know anything about the subject ... and not even wanted to bother becoming more profound and connected to myself. I actually did not want to start a new relationship either ... with someone else ... either with myself. I knew I needed something else into my life... but did not understand the new path I need to follow. And I continued ... searching. On and on ... and on. One day ... a year ago ... while having a fire at one of my properties ... a heart appeared on the roof of the building. Everyone saw the heart ... except myself. Later on ... I saw it in the pictures taken by the people that were there at the time. Again .... I thought that I should find a new mistress and have a parallel life again ... without my wife to find out. But ... I was wrong. So ... damn wrong. Time passed and ... and the Russian-Ukrainian war began ... and I started to host lots of refugees. There were people that needed unconditional love and support ... and I somehow connected to all of them ... realizing that I can be in a weird love story with all those women coming from Ukraine. They were ladies of different age and personality ... but I loved having them into my life. I somehow started to understand that even if I thought that being in love can have only 2 options ... loving a soulmate .... or yourself ... I finally saw a totally new path .... and that was being in a lovely relationship ... practicing another type of love .... with anyone was appearing in my reality. That of course ... could not offend in any way my wife .... and also could not affect the marriage I had ... but ... Yes .... It was ... an amazing trick ... and I just loved it. I finally understood what Dalai Lama or Pope Francis were saying ... about ... unconditional love for all the people from this world. Reading their books ... I even had moments when I thought the 2 of them were idiots .... but I was the idiot one. My marriage ... was indeed karmic ... having nothing to do with love ... but my youngest son learnt me the meaning of ... dharma. My mistress ... which even if I loved so, so much ... but don't even want to hear her name again ... taught me ... what love ... means. She was somehow a combination between karma and love ... and saw her at the end of our love story more as a teacher .... than a soulmate. Most probably i have totally different values as those 2 shrews ... my wife and my mistress ... but i am happy i met the ukrainian ladies. The abstract love story i started with them .... all of them ... no matter of age, personality, perspectives of life ... was a much better path for continuing my life journey. I finally understood that if i would know to connect to the people that appear on the timeline of my life ... and love them unconditionally.... somehow that love that i was chasing so, so much ... since i was a kid ... will come back to me in infinite quantities. I was looking for love ... and i had to see the meaning of love story ... from a totally different perspective. But ... now everything was clear to me. I knew what i had to do ... and which path to follow. My expectation was as my wife to love me .... but she was a karmic character that i could not replace ... or my mistresses to love me unconditionally.... but she was the teacher that made me realize what the concept of love ... means. My life journey ... had to continue ... and the ukrainian ladies showed me such a beautiful perspective ... i never thought about. I was glad ... of this awakening moment. So ... loving you?! ... loving me?! ... or ... simple loving any soul that appears in our lives?! Well ... maybe from my position where i am now ... being in a love story with everyone ... is probably the best scenario i could live. Am glad i see things today ... as that. Might be your perception ... or not. Might sound as a total nonsense all what i am writing .... but maybe it will be much interesting to hear weird ideas ... than the boring ones. So ... let the journey begin ... and we will see if i succeed to really connect to my real self ... so ... that i can find the inspiration to express myself clear enough ... that in the end you will try at least one time ... this kind of abstract love story ... being in love with all the people from your life.

A Grammar of Holy Mystery Larry Hart 2023-03-10 A Grammar of Holy Mystery is about Christian spirituality. It is about mysticism as a firsthand encounter with the presence of God—unfathomable, unnamable, mysterious, fulfilling. It is about classical Christianity, the way of transforming truth found in Christ, taught in Scripture, lived by saints, sages, and mystics, and passed on as a sacred trust through the centuries. Being neither liberal nor conservative, but simply Christian, it is ecumenical in spirit. For those traumatized by harsh or shallow churches, A Grammar of Holy Mystery points the way out and shows the way to a faith that renews the mind, restores the spirit, and gladdens the heart.

“I love you” just to have sex with a woman was something that he did without meaning or feeling; it was just life. Spinning out of control and dating—or so-called dating—as many women as he could just to get his groove on, he started to wonder if what he was doing was right. Confused and feeling something was missing, he started to search for the right one that would help him find and know what true love is. He knew that in the long run, he would have to pay for his mistreatment of women’s hearts yet did not understand that it would affect him also. He knew the pleasures of a woman’s body and never knew the pleasures of a woman’s heart—at least he thought he didn’t know. Follow Anthony as he floats through denial and runs from love that he desperately wanted to have, give, and know.
