Healthy Dating Techniques Dina Aiello 2022-03-09 Finding true love and maintaining a clean healthy relationship is not an impossible task. The trick lies in balancing your act. You need to have lots of virtues like affection, love, respect, patient and trust to be able to do that. The ingredients of a healthy dating relationship are simple and homemade. Healthy love relationships need the help of the following features:

- o Truth and Honesty: Being true to your partner is one of the most basic prerequisites for all good relationships. A clean honest character speaks volume, it builds up trust and no matter what, and your partner will never be suspicious or doubtful about you, as you have always been amazingly truthful to him/her.
- o The Act of Forgiveness: For good solid relationships, you have to forgive and forget the past. It is no use harboring ill feelings towards one another and pretending to be a loving couple.
- o Friendship: Remember the famous quote, 'after the newness of a relationship dies away, only the friendship and companionship remain.' It is not sufficient to have a great physical chemistry; you should also be good friends. In every successful marriage, partners are first loyal friends to each other than anything else.
- o Patience: If you have it in you to be patient and determined, it will help you tide over all the rough patches in a relationship. Love relations and marriages often come to an abrupt ending due to lack of patience to work out the problems with a clear head.

- o Passion: Having flaming passion for your partner does wonders to your love life. Do not confuse passion with sex and lust, having genuine love and passion overrides the physical need for intimacy. It makes the relation strong and durable for many decades.
- o Communicating: Effective communication teaches to you to respect each other's point of view and a healthy regard for your partner's suggestions. It helps you to talk through all the tough issues in life.
- o Monogamy: A valued relationship is one, which is monogamous in nature. Complete truth, honesty and faithfulness to your partner are what it takes to keep a relationship fresh and thriving. If there is deep love and respect for each other, the question of polygamy doesn't even arise-you will never feel the need for a change in your love life.
- o Equality of the Sexes: The major decisions of your lives should be decided mutually in a relationship. It is not the solo right of man alone to resolve matters that involves his partner as well. There should be complete fairness and gender equality.
- o Economic Responsibilities: The financial burden should be equally shared for a healthy pattern. All decisions regarding money should be necessarily made together so that both partners profit from such monetary agreements. In addition, partners in a healthy dating relationship have lots of similar traits. One should be compatible on an emotional, mental and physical level. Our life is very short, so we should value each new day and try to create a happy atmosphere for our partner and ourselves.

Dating relationships should be harbored on a long-term basis. Never look for cheap fun and excitement on a date. Such temporary relationships make it hard for anyone to hold ground, even if they find true love.

Dynamics of Love and Relationships Jiro Chatelain 2020-01-24

Strong Families Equal Strong Nations This is a book that will prove very useful for people that aspire to happiness and satisfaction in all their relationships, marriages and effective decision making in life itself. It is a book for intending lovers, those who are struggling, and those who are still navigating around the path of healing. Before you move on or give up, you must find the problem in your relationship. It is only when you see the problem that you can fix it. Relationships can be likened to automobiles in this instance. It needs to be serviced. All the parts that make it up must function properly. If something is not working and the people involved are too lazy or not ready to work at it; it's going to come crashing down. We all know that it is more challenging to fix a dead car than to repair a little mechanical fault as soon as you discover it. Your situation may be quite different from others. You could be in a relationship with someone who doesn't feel as connected as you are to the relationship. At first, it will hurt deeply. You may begin to wonder if you are good enough. You'll have self-doubts and wonder why this person isn't proud of you like you are of them. They don't show you off. They aren't ready to let you into the deepest and darkest places of their lives. They aren't ready to take things to the next level. This could affect your self-image. It will rub off on your self-confidence, and you may start to resent the person you are in a relationship with. While it's easy to be hurt, angry, and upset, when someone is not ready to be committed to you, it has nothing to do with you. One mystery that life has offered us is the inability to get inside someone else's head. It's not possible to truly understand people's motives except when they tell you. This is why you shouldn't take the rejection personally. What if they are going through something? What if they aren't ready? These are just 'What Ifs?' But they could be people's realities. Some people are conscientious enough to block you out from whatever they are struggling with. They understand their inner fights. They seek healing and do not want to drag you into it. It becomes essential for them to set boundaries; create a wall and shield their hearts in it. You may think they are cold and unemotional. However, this is their way of blocking you from accessing those parts of them that still hurt. There are people that are hypocritical about it. Although they struggle with something, they are willing to let others in. And they find desperate people to be like prey. They use people's love to channel their pain, and this comes out toxic every time. You will always be at the receiving end of bad energy. There's nothing you will do that could ever be good enough. Once you are done with this set of people, you'll realize that they have transferred their pain to you. The cycle of brokenness is continued. There are people who were broken as children, through physical, sexual or emotional trauma. Until they heal from this trauma they cannot be in a healthy relationship because they are no health. Again, this is not your fault, but don't stay in a codependent or abusive relationship. It is essential to understand that people are at different stages in their lives. When you have feelings for someone, it's easy to remain in a relationship with them even if your relationship has no future. While it's incredible that you are sticking it out against all the odds, you need to ask yourself if that person is even in the same stage of life as you. If you examine this simple guidance from Jiro, you will understand why this book is a necessary tool that will help you to identify what stage of life your partner is currently in and how crucial it is for the future of your relationship. It will also help you to have a more fulfilling life.
