National Conference on Sex Offender Registries - 1998

This document presents the proceedings of the conference. Day One of the conference focused primarily on the sex offender problem from a Federal perspective. A panel of U.S. Justice Department officials discussed various aspects of the Federal statutes and conducted an informative question-and-answer session to address the specific concerns of individual States. DayTwo began with a presentation by FBI representatives concerning preparations the Bureau is taking to assume control of registration and notification functions in States unable to establish their own effective programs.

Evaluating Sex Offenders - Dennis M. Doren 2002-04-10

A professional volume to help practitioners, clinicians, counselors, and parole officers, assess risk and evaluate offenders who have been convicted of a sex crime. This is the most comprehensive volume available on every aspect of assessing risk. It compares all current risk assessment techniques of sex offenders in terms of ease of use, reliability, and predictive power. It is a complete guide to assessing sex offenders for likelihood of re-offense, and it provides a wealth of information on other aspects of the assessment process, including information gathering, interviewing offenders, and writing reports. Chapter topics include: defining risk; data gathering; diagnostic issues; recidivism base rates; risk factor lists; actuarial scales; instrumentation (violent and sexual); the evaluation report; presenting in court; ethical issues.

Sex Offender Supervision and Treatment Report - Texas. Dept. of Criminal Justice. Research, Evaluation & Development 1999

This Adobe Acrobat report provides information on the efforts of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) to manage sex offenders. Female Sex Offenders - Donna M. Vandiver 2003 Vandiver's research includes an assessment of 532 registered female sex offenders in Texas. Her research found most (88 percent) of the registered adult female sex offenders in Texas were Caucasian. The majority (88 percent) had only one sex offense noted in her criminal history, with the largest percentage (34 percent) having committed indecency with a child, involving sexual contact. These females received an average sentence length of approximately eight years. The victims were typically young. Fifty-three percent were between the ages of 12 and 17, while 25 percent were between the ages of six and 11. Vandiver also developed a classification scheme, identifying six types of female sex offenders.

How to Work with Sex Offenders - Rudy Flora 2013-06-19

How to Work with Sex Offenders is a cutting edge, state-of-the-art book that provides mental health professionals best practice techniques on how to clinically evaluate, interview, and treat this challenging patient population. Successful models of individual, family, and group models of psychotherapy are provided for the reader. In addition, this handbook walks the reader through the investigation, arrest, prosecution and court hearing process, from start to finish. Thoroughly revised, this new edition builds on additional research data and new information, adding advanced chapters on female offenders, Internet offenders, pornography, sexual addiction, rape and child and adolescent sexual misconduct. This is a must-read work for undergraduate and graduate students, law enforcement officers, prosecutors, judges, child protection service workers, therapists, and other professionals who work with sex offenders.

Sex Offenders - Fabian M. Saleh 2021

"In his annual lecture to second year medical students, Dr. Fred Berlin describes an interview he had, early in his career, with a man whom he was evaluating following the man's arrest for child sexual abuse. Halfway through the interview, the arrested man interrupted Dr. Berlin's questions and said, You know, Doctor, your society takes a newborn baby boy; gathers family and friends, takes a knife and without any anesthesia cuts skin off the tip of his penis. This is accepted as a religious act. I bend over and kiss that same penis, and I am arrested as a child sexual abuser. Can you explain that to me?

(Berlin, 2000)"--

Extreme Deviance - Erich Goode 2008
