Every day we are bombarded with new challenges, too many demands, and not enough time. This devotional planner is a resource to put God first and foremost, as we focus on our PART in cooperating with his great plan for our lives. What is our PART? Pray over every area of life. Ask for God-size blessings. Repent of sins (known or unknown) that block the flow of Gods blessings. Thank him for his faithfulness. This priority planner does more than provide a journal of daily affairs. It is designed to help reveal the unique plan God has for your life. God gives dreams to every one of us. We have to cooperate with him to make those dreams a reality! Many times we set out to pray about our hopes and dreams but get easily distracted. We create to-do lists but dont follow through. This planner is organized to help us do our PART to keep God centered in every area of our lives and prioritize our steps in cooperation with that great plan. This 365-day planner is a spiritual guide that includes valuable tools to live victoriously. You are guided to ask God to reveal his plan as you pray about your faith, friends, family, fitness, fellowship, finances, future, fun, and functions. Each days devotion is linked to biblical principle, scripture, and prayer. The daily devotional is designed for meditation on how to apply these biblical truths to everyday life. As you spend time in the presence of God, who wants only his best for you, insights will be revealed about the plan he has created just for you. Write down the thoughts, goals, and priorities as they are revealed so that they dont escape you. As your dreams appear on paper, you can prioritize what God has placed on your heart in such a way as to accomplish greater things for his kingdom. While keeping God centered in your life, your dreams will evolve and flourish. You will be given proper perspective to take actions that help you become everything God created you to be. In everything you do, put God first, and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success (Proverbs 3:6). When you reflect later on your journal entries, Gods faithfulness is revealed in all that he has done. The journal entries also provide a legacy of wisdom and values for future generations of loved ones who will inevitably read them. This devotional planner is an excellent resource for people who want to prioritize their affairs according to biblical principles.

I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die - Sarah J. Robinson 2021-05-11

A compassionate, shame-free guide for your darkest days "A one-of-a-kind book . . . to read for yourself or give to a struggling friend or loved one without the fear that depression and suicidal thoughts will be minimized, medicalized or over-spiritualized."—Kay Warren, cofounder of Saddleback Church What happens when loving Jesus doesn't cure you of depression, anxiety, or suicidal thoughts? You might be crushed by shame over your mental illness, only to be told by well-meaning Christians to "choose joy" and "pray more." So you beg God to take away the pain, but nothing eases the ache inside. As darkness lingers and color drains from your world, you're left wondering if God has abandoned you. You just want a way out. But there's hope. In I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die, Sarah J. Robinson offers a healthy, practical, and shame-free guide for Christians struggling with mental illness. With unflinching honesty, Sarah shares her story of battling depression and fighting to stay alive despite toxic theology that made her afraid to seek help outside the church. Pairing her own story with scriptural insights, mental health research, and simple practices, Sarah helps you reconnect with the God who is present in our deepest anguish and discover that you are worth everything it takes to get better. Beautifully written and full of hard-won wisdom, I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die offers a path toward a rich, hope-filled life in Christ, even when healing doesn't look like what you expect.

Devotions for Your Time of Need - Robin Prince Monroe 1994

A Phenomenology of the Devout Life - George Pattison 2018-11

A Phenomenology of the Devout Life is the first part of a three-part work, A Philosophy of Christian Life. Rather than approaching Christianity through its doctrinal statements, as philosophers of religion have often done, the book starts by offering a phenomenological description of the devout life as that is set out in the teaching of Francois de Sales and related authors. This is because for most Christians practice and life-commitments are more fundamental than formal doctrinal beliefs. Although George Pattison will address the metaphysical truth-claims of Christianity in Part three, the guiding argument is that it is the Christian way of life that best reveals what these beliefs really are. As the work is a philosophical study, it does not presuppose the truth of Christianity but assumes only that there is a humanly accessible meaning to the intention to live a devout life, pleasing to God. This can be said to find expression in a certain view of selfhood that emphasizes the dimensions of feeling and will rather than intellect and that culminates in the experience of the annihilation of self. This is a model of selfhood deeply opposed to contemporary models that privilege autonomous agency and the devout life is therefore presented as offering a corrective to extreme versions of the contemporary view.

Death of A Nation - D. B. Lantz 2010-09

In the year 2041, we find a very different country than the one we have all learned to love. This new country is called America. The economy is solely based upon the production of food. Now, more than ever, America feeds the entire world. With the demise of the United States the world has entered a very dark period. The beacon of hope for all mankind has been extinguished. The world has not seen any advancement in the fields of industry, medicine or culture. The nation's religion is based upon worshipping the green earth. Long gone are the days when the people fell to their knees and prayed to the heavens above. The clean sky and clear water, that which we can see and feel, have replaced blind faith. The new world order has replaced freedom and liberty with a redistribution of wealth, except there is no wealth! The individual citizen has no room in their lives for anything other than the will of the State, devotion must be total. Change is what "we the people" wanted and our government delivered upon its promise, and fundamentally changed it all. Gone from the face of the earth and most people's memory is the United States of America. The King and the ruling class do all of the thinking and planning for what's best for everyone. No longer do the citizens suffer the stress that freedom, liberty, and self determination can bring into their lives. The ruling class is separate from the workers, but all work hard for the well-being of the State.

My Holy Hour - St. Maximilian Kolbe - Vikk Simmons 2018-01-30

New journal for Lent and ordinary times featuring St. Maximilian Kolbe, a man of Love, Sacrifice, and Holiness Are you at peace or is life out of control? Are you overwhelmed with the onslaught of daily life? Do you yearn for peace but feel it's impossible to find? A Holy Hour is the perfect answer and a Holy Hour journal is the perfect companion. In 1941 St. Maximilian Kolbe laid down his life for another during his final days in the Auschwitz death camp. He personified John 15:13 "Greater love than this no man hath, that a man should lay down his life for his friends." Ten men were chosen to die by starvation as the result of a prisoner escaping. Fr. Maximilian Kolbe offered to take the place of another prisoner who had a family. In spite of his own pain and starvation, this holy priest ministered to the rest of the chosen men during his dying days. In the end, he and three other men who were still alive were killed by injection. Pope John Paul II canonized him as a saint in 1982 and declared him to be the "saint of the twentieth century." Use this journal during your holy hours and prayer time to reflect upon the life of this man who is the patron saint of families, prisoners, journalists, political prisoners, drug addicts and the pro-life movement. Holy Hours help you grow spiritually and deepen your relationship with God. You'll find you're able to focus more on God, adore Jesus, and open up to the Holy Spirit.
