When Sex Becomes a Weapon in the Relationship - Gabriel 2014-11-05

This tells the story of Gabriel's family in the suburbs of Chicago, where they chose to live when they immigrated to America. This highly motivated couple had six children, all equally smart in different ways. Their children also inherited their good looks and sense of humor. Gabriel and his wife worked very hard and made many sacrifices to do what was good for their kids. The only thing missing in this family was the physical part of the couple's relationship. After all these years of marriage, with the kids growing up, the relationship was falling apart. That's why I decided to share my story to help others, and if I can help just one person who reads this, then it will make writing this book worth it.

The Resettlement of Sex Offenders after Custody - David Thompson 2017-07-14

Circles of Support and Accountability is a voluntary initiative that assists people with convictions for sexual offences to resettle in the community. People leaving prison with such convictions often have difficulties in resettling. They carry the burden of the conviction itself, which may be both stigmatising and isolating, and they are the subject of sex offender register requirements, parole and other supervisory conditions. Circles of Support and Accountability in the UK started over ten years ago and have slowly spread across the country. They work closely with the police and probation services but rely entirely on volunteers prepared to give up their time to work with people often otherwise shunned by communities. Circles offer support to the person concerned but also hold them accountable for their future behaviour. They aim to ensure there are 'no more victims'. This book is based on original research and provides a close-up picture of how these Circles of Support and Accountability work in practice. It brings together for the first time the voices of all the participants, from the offenders and the volunteers through to the Coordinators who link the volunteers to the professionals in the form of the police and probation services.

The Impact of Sex Based Stereotype Threat on Decision Making - Emily M. Cade 2017

The present study, a replicated study by Inzlicht and Kang (2010), focused on spillover effects in decision making. This study focused on how sex-based stereotype threat would influence decisions. Participants in the experimental condition were primed with a stereotype threat experience by asking them to recall a time they experienced stereotype threat based on their gender. They were then given a choice between two (risky vs. safe) hypothetical lottery ticket options. Participants in the control condition made the same lottery ticket choice, but without being primed to think about experiences with stereotype threat beforehand. The decisions of the participants were examined to look for sex-based differences in their choice. Unexpectedly, it was found that women were more likely to choose the safe lottery ticket following the recollection of a stereotype threat experience. Further, it was found that participants that live in a rural, relative to a more urban, setting were more likely to choose the safe lottery ticket when there was no recall made. Implications of the findings are discussed.

Sex, Lies and Triathlon - Leib Dodell 2011-07-11

Triathletes are a unique breed. Amateur triathlete and humorist Leib Dodell has been living among them for years, often chronicling their foibles and eccentricities in the pages of Inside Triathlon magazine. Whether you are a beginning triathlete, a battle-tested age-grouper, or an elite competitor, the hilarious stories and anecdotes in Sex, Lies and Triathlon perfectly capture the triathlon lifestyle. Or maybe you've never even considered doing a race, but there's a triathlete in your life somewhere - a relative, colleague, boyfriend or girlfriend, or (God help you) a spouse. Sex, Lies and Triathlon will give you a wickedly funny, if somewhat frightening, glimpse into their world. Here are a few examples: On training workouts: "Basically, a good hard workout is like the exact opposite of casual sex: You always dread it beforehand, but afterwards you're always really glad you did it." On warming up before a race: "I generally consider it a successful warm-up if I can find a reasonably clean bathroom with toilet paper and a door that closes - and that's just in my apartment." On winning the "lottery" to compete in the Hawaii Ironman: "Competing in the Ironman is hardly the kind of windfall one normally associates with winning a lottery. It's like getting a letter in the mail that says, in giant 24-point type, 'CONGRATULATIONS! YOU MAY HAVE ALREADY WON 12 HOURS OF
