Sparks fly in mid-air when Sinead, a fun and feisty Irish flight attendant, meets Gabriel, a gorgeous but grumpy Aussie CEO in First Class. When a storm hits during their flight from Melbourne to London, they are unexpectedly grounded in Singapore. No-one could predict Sinead and Gabriel would be locked-in together in the same hotel suite . . . with only one bed! One steamy night could lead to more as they chase each other across the world. Sinead doesn't know if she can follow her heart after her disastrous relationship with her stalker ex-boyfriend. He shook her so much, shattered her confidence in men, and made it hard to trust. Her connection with Gabriel is powerful, a call to throw caution to the wind. Maybe it's time to find love, a man to call her own. To heal her broken heart. But Gabriel isn't exactly an open book. He wants Sinead with an intensity that scares him but he can't afford to let a woman in, to pursue anything besides a hook-up. What if Sinead doesn't understand the limits he has to place on relationships? What if she cracks him wide open and disturbs the careful balance of his life? He may never recover. Follow Sinead and Gabriel as they navigate a new relationship while dealing with the excess baggage of their pasts. Will love take flight?
