Who Is Talking Out of My Head? - Grief as an Out of Body Experience - Jocelyn Faire 2013-05

The author received the phone call that no parent wants, informing her of the tragic accident involving her children; and in an instant life was forever changed. She opens up her heart and her journals to share the journey of grief and the foundation of her ongoing hope. This book speaks to a twofold audience - those in deep grief, and those who walk alongside, desiring to comfort in truly meaningful ways, but often not knowing how. By allowing the reader into her heart and head, she shows how a simple question or an unthinking comment can cause further stress and pain. Both griever and comforter will be deeply affected and encouraged by this raw, honest response to personal crippling grief. This book encourages all to sing a new song with God's help, no matter what we face in life.

Rules for Dating your Ex - Piper Rayne 2020-09-01

Now a USA Today Bestseller If your ex arrives in your hometown eighteen months after you walked out on him while you were eight months pregnant, follow this short list of rules before you give him a second chance. Rule #1 - Don't stand in the way of your brothers who want to rough him up. Rule #2 - Don't meet him for coffee and agree to allow him to meet your daughter. Rule #3 - Don't drool when your daughter falls asleep on his chest for the first time. It's just your ovaries talking. Rule #4 - Don't let him hold your hand. While we're at it, no hugs, no kisses on the cheek... just no physical contact in general. That only leads to remembering better times. The last one is the most important... Rule #5 - When you find yourself needing someone's help and you're tired of always asking your family, don't let him be the one who's there for you. Because all those good qualities of his will suck you right back in and you'll have no chance of fighting your feelings, especially now that he's ready to be a father to your daughter.
