Down Girl - Kate Manne 2019-03-01

'An important and compelling analysis of a phenomenon that's everywhere' Cordelia Fine, Big Issue 'Offers a sharply cut prism through which to view our everyday experience' Afua Hirsch, The TLS A powerful, lucid analysis of the logic of misogyny from a remarkable feminist thinker, Down Girl is essential reading for the #MeToo era. Misogyny is a hot topic, yet it's often misunderstood. What is misogyny, exactly? Who deserves to be called a misogynist? How does misogyny contrast with sexism, and why is it prone to persist - or increase - even when sexist gender roles are waning? In Down Girl moral philosopher Kate Manne argues that misogyny should not be understood primarily in terms of the hatred or hostility some men feel toward all or most women. Rather, it is primarily about controlling, policing, punishing and exiling the "bad" women who challenge male dominance. And it is compatible with rewarding "the good ones" and singling out other women to serve as warnings to those who are out of order.

M Is for Mama - Abbie Halberstadt 2022-02-01

A PUBLISHER'S WEEKLY BESTSELLER Mama of ten Abbie Halberstadt helps women humbly and gracefully rise to the high calling of motherhood without settling for mediocrity or losing their minds in the process. Motherhood is a challenge. Unfortunately, our worldly culture offers moms little in the way of real help. Mamas only connect to celebrate surviving another day and to share in their misery rather than rejoice in what God has done and to build each other up in hard times. There has to be a better way, a biblical way, for mamas to grow and thrive. As a daughter of Christ, you have been called to be more than an average mama. Attaining excellence doesn't have to be unsettling but it will take committed focus and a desire to parent well according to God's grace and for His glory. M is for Mama offers advice, encouragement, and scripturally sound strategies seasoned with a little bit of humor to help you embrace the challenge of biblical motherhood and raise your children with love and wisdom. Mama, you are worthy of the awesome responsibility God has given you. Now it's time to start believing you can live up to it.

The Mirror and the Palette - Jennifer Higgie 2022-09-13

A dazzlingly original and ambitious book on the history of female self-portraiture by one of today's most well-respected art critics. Her story weaves in and out of time and place. She's Frida Kahlo, Lois Mailou Jones and Amrita Sher-Gil en route to Mexico City, Paris or Bombay. She's Suzanne Valadon and Gwen John, craving city lights, the sea and solitude; she's Artemisia Gentileschi striding through the streets of Naples and Paula Modersohn-Becker in Worpswede. She's haunting museums in her paint-stained dress, scrutinising how El Greco or Titian or Van Dyck or Cézanne solved the problems that she too is facing. She's railing against her corsets, her chaperones, her husband and her brothers; she's hammering on doors, dreaming in her bedroom, working day and night in her studio. Despite the immense hurdles that have been placed in her way, she sits at her easel, picks up a mirror and paints a self-portrait because, as a subject, she is always available. Until the twentieth century, art history was, in the main, written by white men who tended to write about other white men. The idea that women in the West have always made art was rarely cited as a possibility. Yet they have - and, of course, continue to do so - often against tremendous odds, from laws and religion to the pressures of family and public disapproval. In The Mirror and the Palette, Jennifer Higgie introduces us to a cross-section of women artists who embody the fact that there is more than one way to understand our planet, more than one way to live in it and more than one way to make art about it. Spanning 500 years, biography and cultural history intertwine in a narrative packed with tales of rebellion, adventure, revolution, travel and tragedy enacted by women who turned their back on convention and lived lives of great resilience, creativity and bravery.

Master's Thesis from the year 2022 in the subject Sociology - Old Age, grade: 1,7, University of Applied Sciences Ansbach, language: English, abstract: The focus of this work is hereby on the images that influencers above the age of 60 (in the following also called as "older" or "elderly" as well as "older generations") share on social media in both private and professional contexts. The aim here is to find out whether Granfluencers eliminate existing age stereotypes or reinforce them. The knowledge gained from this research can serve as a foundation for digital marketing strategies in cooperations that would like to diversify their campaigns in the future. In order to be able to answer this question, the current state of research was presented in the second chapter. In this section, stereotypes, especially age stereotypes, gender stereotypes, gendered ageism, and the portrayal of older people in the media were discussed. In this context, gender and age studies were also discussed, followed by a closer look at Granfluencers. These were first defined, then the origins of these were described, and in the last step, the importance of Granfluencers for digital marketing was discussed. The third chapter deals with the actual analysis, which was executed to look at the expression of age and gender stereotypes of Granfluencers in detail. For this purpose, the aim of the analysis, the research questions, and the methodological implementation were first presented. In a second step, the object of investigation was defined in detail based on the theory of content analysis by Rössler. Afterwards, validity and reliability were defined and documented in the context of the master thesis. The third section deals with the presentation of the results and lastly the results were evaluated in this chapter. The conclusion summarizes the thesis and mentions the limitations as well as the implications for future research.
