Nursing Research: Reading, Using and Creating Evidence - Houser 2016-12-14
 « Nursing Research: Reading, Using, and Creating Evidence, Fourth Edition focuses on the concept that research is essential as evidence for nursing practice. Written in a conversational tone and using a reader-friendly approach, this text teaches students how to translate research into evidence in a practical way. The text enables students to gain a fundamental understanding of all types of research used for evidence through its emphasis on research methods, use of research evidence in clinical decision-making, and ways to engage in evidence-based practice. The Fourth Edition highlights the importance of translating research findings into evidence as the most critical step for improving patient care. This updated edition contrasts six different models for organizational evidenced-based practice, including Magnet designation requirements, collaboration between researchers and practitioners for knowledge translation, community and home health evidence-based practice, and the challenges of creating an organizational culture that values evidence-based practice. »--

How to Stay Lovers for Life - Sharyn Wolf 1998

Surviving in any long-term relationship requires careful strategy and a strong dose of playfulness. Every relationship has its ups and downs, the moments when someone says, "I'm so in love I can't imagine being single", and the moments when they wonder, "Who is this alien beside me?" But the good news is that the excitement and romance a couple knew at the beginning can be restored and sustained. Based on the stone model of guerrilla survival skills that made her book Guerrilla Dating Tactics such a success, Sharyn Wolf takes the same playful, humorous approach to solving relationship problems -- from the lingering dirty socks in the bedroom to the bigger issues like children, housework, sex, and communication. In this step-by-step guide to diagnosing and treating your relationship problems, hundreds of simple strategies are provided to get your relationship back on track. Some sample Mating Tactics: -- After a fight, make it up to your partner by doing a household task she/he hates to do-- Chart your positive and negative times together -- and see the patterns that develop-- Draw a family tree with your partner so you can recognize the impact of your past on your present. Replete with colorful, real-life stories of couples who made it through the trenches together, How to Stay Lovers for Life offers hundreds of quick, easy, and fun things couples can do to keep their love alive and their relationship flourishing.

Mindful Relationship Guide - Warren E Hogue 2020-01-23

When we think of couples in a happy relationship and what the basis of their happiness is for them to have such a great relationship, we quickly think of things like the attraction or love that they feel for each other. We may also think of their good looks, good social status, or other external factors that serve as the basis of their happy relationship. But what we usually don't think about is what is under the surface and gives them the ability to have a happy relationship ... We don't think of an emotional strength that the two have developed. We don't think these people are so reflective that they have put down all the conflicts that brought them back from childhood and bad experiences. We don't think they have overcome an emotional addiction and insecurity that make it difficult for each of us to get to know each other easily and without power games or hidden cards. Relationships do not succeed because the partners are magically destined for each other, but because they have removed their inner conflicts, emotional dependency and insecurity and have now developed an emotional strength that allows them to have happy relationships - in the partnership that Friendship and to yourself. They can be 30 or 75 years old. They come in all colors, shapes, sizes and income classes. It doesn't matter how long they are together. Whatever the reason, if you see a happy couple, you just know it! How do these couples stay together in good and bad times and what makes a happy relationship? Fortunately, the answer to this is not "by luck or chance". It is the result of deliberate actions.
