Random circumstances brought them together. Love made them family. Four years after Brady and Luna came into Hailey and Nick's life, they, plus their three-year-old daughter, April, are happily settled on the Gulf Coast of Florida with their dachshund, Zeke, and their adopted fluffy white dog, Tiger. Building sandcastles is still something they all love to do. Hailey and Nick discover Brady is musical, and he and Nick enter a talent contest, which is covered in the local newspaper. Then, out of the blue, a woman appears on their doorstep claiming she is Brady and Luna's grandmother. After researching and discovering the woman is who she claims to be, Hailey is forced into making room for a family member she hoped never to meet. Remembering how Maddie Kirby once took her in as a young child, Hailey works hard to make it happen even as she wants to protect her children, discovering along the way a new kind of Christmas Joy. Unbored - Joshua Glenn 2013-07-18

Unbored is the book every modern child needs. Brilliantly walking the line between cool and constructive, it's crammed with activities that are not only fun and doable but that also get kids standing on their own two feet. If you're a kid, you can: -- Build a tipi or an igloo -- Learn to knit -- Take stuff apart and fix it -- Find out how to be constructively critical -- Film a stop-action movie or edit your own music -- Do parkour like James Bond -- Make a little house for a mouse from lollipop sticks -- Be independent! Catch a bus solo or cook yourself lunch -- Make a fake exhaust for your bike so it sounds like you're revving up a motorcycle -- Design a board game -- Go camping (or glamping) -- Plan a road trip -- Get proactive and support the causes you care about -- Develop your taste and decorate your own room -- Make a rocket from a coke bottle -- Play farting games There are gross facts and fascinating stories, reports on what stuff is like (home schooling, working in an office...), Q&As with inspiring grown-ups, extracts from classic novels, lists of useful resources and best ever lists like the top clean rap songs, stop-motion movies or books about rebellion. Just as kids begin to disappear into their screens, here is a book that encourages them to use those tech skills to be creative, try new things and change the world. And it gets parents to join in. Unbored is fully illustrated, easy to use and appealing to young and old, girl and boy. Parents will be comforted by its anti-perfectionist spirit and humour. Kids will just think it's brilliant.

A world exists behind your eyes. A place with its own history and culture, heroes and villains, gods and demons. One of them is Crystal Molcott: Young, independent, strong, and trapped in an arranged marriage from birth. Meet Richard Cavalon, the young suitor who sways her heart, and Count Rahlkhlis, a power hungry madman manipulating the whole of Guildshelm toward a disaster sculpted to give him ultimate power. But one look at Gabriel Spencer, and his muse is off and running. Good thing, too, as his deadline is looming. Bakery assistant Gabriel abhors anything with blood and gore, but he's intrigued by Jack and agrees to help the sexy author. He's not expecting the white hot attraction that builds every moment they are together, or how to handle dating someone who pushes him so far outside his comfort zone. Happiness versus horror, sunlight versus shadows, early riser versus night owl, the men couldn't be more different. Opposites attract, but are they too dissimilar to write their own happy ever after?
