

A Woman S Promise

Persevere Pearl Dunford 2022-09-10 Our life's path can be hindered by the decisions and choices that we make. Victoria is so blinded by her desire to be with James that she doesn't see signs that later in life will become trials and tribulations. Victoria felt her life's purpose was to be with James. At an early age she was his choice, and he was hers. Since their bond was broken beyond their control its possible that fate would allow them to reconnect once they were older and could make their own decisions. Knowing that there are always two sides to every story. Victoria tells the events that lead up to her journeys in life and what she does to counteract the trials and tribulations she faced. As women sometimes when blinded by the love we do whatever is necessary to hold on to what we have. It becomes hard to determine when the relationship is toxic, we tend to find ways to stay and fix the problem versus counting our loses and making a good sound judgement to just leave. We tend to remember the good and suppress the bad. I challenge you to step into the life of Victoria. Watch how she goes from a selfless teenager and matures into a woman that has inherited troubles she could never imagine. Feel her determination. As she goes through her life's journey fighting for her family. Understand the importance she feels to fix what has been broken in order to keep her family together. Sit back and watch how Victoria finds strength to Persevere.
