Girl, Stop Passing Out in Your Makeup - Zara Barrie 2020-05-19

"Self-help meets memoir. Party girl meets wise sage. Beauty meets reality. Zara Barrie is the cool older sister you wish you had. The one that lets you borrow her designer dresses and ripped up fishnets, buys you champagne (she loves you too much to let you drink beer), and colors your lips with bright pink lipstick. She'll take you to the coolest parties, and will stick by your side and she guides you through the glitter, pain, danger, laughter, and what it means to be a f*cked up girl in this f*cked up world (both of which are beautiful despite the darkness). Girl, Stop Passing Out in Your Makeup is for the girls that are too much of a beautiful contradiction to be contained. Zara is a gifted writer—one second she'll have you laughing over rich girls agonizing over which Birkin bag to buy, the next second she'll shatter your heart in one sentence about losing one's innocence. Zara is the nuanced girl she writes for—light, irreverent, snarky, bitchy, funny; and aching, perceptive, deep, flawed, wise, poised, honest—all at once. Perhaps the only thing that can match Zara's unparalleled wit and big sister advice is her candid humor and undeniable talent for the written word. Zara is one of the most prolific and entertaining honest voices on the internet—and her talent is only multiplied in book form. Girl, Stop Passing Out in Your Makeup is for the bad girls, honey."—Dayna Troisi, Executive Editor, GO Magazine "Reading Zara's writing will make you feel like you're at your cool-as-hell big sister's sleepover party. You will be transfixed by her unflinching honesty and words of wisdom, and she'll successfully convince you to not only ditch the shame you feel about the raw and messy parts of yourself, but to dare to see them as beautiful."—Alexia LaFata, Editor, New York Magazine "If Cat Marnell and F. Scott Fitzgerald had a literary baby it would be Zara Barrie. She's got Marnell's casual, dark, downright hilarious tone of an irreverent party girl. But then she also has Fitzgerald's talent for making words literally feel like they sparkle on the page. I've always been a fan of Zara's writing but Girl, Stop Passing Out in Your Makeup takes it to the next level. With shimmering words that make her dark stories sparkle, she seamlessly manages to inspire even the most coked-out girl at the party to get her shit together."—Candice Jalili, Senior Sex & Dating Writer, Elite Daily

Rocco and Blossom A Love Story - Margie Lockwood 2013-01-28

"Dr. Carnavale? We have him all comfortable now if you'd like to come with me." She looked up, the dazed and bruised expression still there after an hour of fear and confusion, hands clenched tightly on her lap. Linda, the head ICU nurse, had seen her over the years; but she looked smaller now, dignified even in her flounced denim skirt and peasant blouse, her gray shoulder-length hair pinned back with barrettes centered with turquoise stones. She stood carefully. Linda lightly held her arm and guided her down the hall. They turned into the room, and even though she knew what she would see, despair settled on her at the sight of the tubes and monitors. There he lay, his beautiful white hair still thick with waves, his eyelashes surprisingly black. "As the doctor told you, he's comfortable, and nothing will happen until you say so. If you'd like, you could go home until your children arrive," pushing a chair closer for her even as she said it and moving a table closer so she could reach the tissues and ice water. "There's a blanket here, and feel free to lay on the other bed if you like. We'll be right down the hall if you need us." She found his left hand with both of hers and laid her forehead against them. "I'm so sorry, my darling. I know I promised. It's just until the children get here. I didn't want you all stiff and cold when they came. Don't be mad. I love you." Oh how she wished it was a dream, that she'd wake up and hear him, "Baby girl, I'm here. Where are you?" Fifty-five years—how could it be, how could it possibly be—since the day she first saw him.

For years she chose the safe option, but from now on she's going to live a little...be a little daring. And if that means acting on the long-suppressed feelings she's always had for Reid Dalton, then so be it! Reid has wanted Tara from the moment he met her, but she's always been out of bounds. Not only is she his patrol partner at the Bozeman PD, she's also engaged. But then her relationship blows up, and Reid finds himself battling his own instinct to stake his claim with the finest, hottest woman he's ever known. Even if anything did happen between them, it would only be temporary. So even if things are good between them, it seems their romance is destined to be short and sweet...

For a girl who shares her name with a princess (a.k.a Aurora from Sleeping Beauty), Aurora Skye's life seem fathoms away from a fairytale. Sure, she's landed Hayden Paris, Potential Prince extraordinaire. And she got her wish - one first kiss with all the knee-trembling, butterfly-inducing gloriousness she'd hoped for - but Aurora's learning that a kiss is just the beginning of a story. Instead of being the truly transcendent, utterly epic follow up it should be, her second attempt at kissing has literally landed Hayden Paris in the emergency room. If that's not mortifying enough, the whole school is now referring to her as 'Lethal Lips'. Meanwhile it's all systems go for her best friend Cassie - she and Potential Prince Scott are totally loved up and can't stop kissing. Jelena (Jefferson High's answer to Helen of troy) has moved on from the heinous betrayal by Bad Boy Alex West and has unleashed her plan to rule the world by running for School Captain. Problem is Alex is running too and Jelena's pulling out all the stops to prevent him from stealing her rightful place as ruler of Jefferson High - including offering Aurora's Find a Prince/Princess Program as one of her campaign initiatives. How is Aurora going to prove her program is foolproof and help Jelena win the election when her matchmaking manoeuvres seem to be throwing all the wrong people together - including the NAD and the hippy-dippy Ms Deforest - and she can't even convince Hayden to kiss her?
