2021-04-01

'Entertaining, affectionate and righteous' Guardian 'Says so much about being a woman' Cosey Fanni Tutti In 1983, backstage at the Lyceum in London, Tracey Thorn and Lindy Morrison first met. Tracey's music career was just beginning, while Lindy, drummer for The Go-Betweens, was ten years her senior. They became confidantes, comrades and best friends, a relationship cemented by gossip and feminism, books and gigs and rock 'n' roll love affairs. Thorn takes stock of thirty-seven years of friendship, teasing out the details of connection and affection between two women who seem to be either complete opposites or mirror images of each other. She asks what people see, who does the looking, and ultimately who writes women out of - and back into - history.

Girls Just Want to Have Likes - Laurie Wolk 2017-08-29

An educator and leadership coach teaches parents how to cut through daughters' addiction to social media and reclaim family connection. In today's age of social media, young girls are learning crucial life lessons from dubious mentors like the Kardashians and other Instagram "celebrities." Many are so thoroughly addicted to social media they are uncomfortable communicating face to face. It's no wonder parents across the country are afraid for their daughters' self-esteem and ability to thrive in the real world. In Girls Just Want to Have Likes, educator and leadership coach Laurie Wolk offers smart advice on how parents can take control, communicate meaningfully with their children, and get back to raising confident capable young women. Laurie shows parents how to reclaim their roles as mentor and guide, helping their daughters unwind and decode the toxic messages social media broadcasts. By applying Laurie's methods, social media will start to fade into the background of your household, allowing family connection to take center stage—and letting your daughter shine.

Unprotected - Miriam Grossman 2007-08-28

Our campuses are steeped in political correctness—that's hardly news to anyone. But no one realizes that radical social agendas have also taken over campus health and counseling centers, with dire consequences. Psychiatrist Miriam Grossman knows this better than anyone. She has treated more than 2,000 students at one of America's most prestigious universities, and she's seen how the anything-goes, women-are-just-like-men, "safer-sex" agenda is actually making our sons and daughters sick. Dr. Grossman takes issue with the experts who suggest that students problems can be solved with free condoms and Zoloft. What campus counselors and health providers must do, she argues, is tell uncomfortable, politically incorrect truths, especially to young patients in their most vulnerable and confused moments. Instead of platitudes and misinformation, it's time to offer them real protection.

Seducing a Woman with Words - Lucas Lautier 2018-05-31

"Hi, how are you?" Do you count on seducing a girl with this kind of line? Really? May he who has never ended up in the friendzone cast the first stone at me. We've all already found ourselves in this uncomfortable situation: the one where we try to go further with a friend before being gently rejected. And yet, by applying some powerful advice that would have allowed you to position yourself otherwise in the nascent relationship, you would surely be in a relationship with this woman at this time. The secrets I am about to pass on to you have made me the man I am today: a true and complete man who is aware of the hidden power of words. The seduction techniques that you will soon learn have allowed me to sleep with more than forty women at only 22 years old. Passionate about human psychology (and female beauty), I looked into the subject very early to reach my goals. I ended up mastering the tricks of the trade to a point where everything became too easy...

Seducing a woman by SMS, approaching on Facebook or flirting on Tinder is child's play for me. This is what you're going to learn in this book: - How to never again end up in the Friendzone by learning the difference between a classic conversation and flirting (many people confuse the two). We don't talk to a friend in the same way that we would talk to a potential future girlfriend. - How to effectively start a conversation with a woman on a dating site or Facebook and make her want to get to know you, by differentiating yourself from other men. - How to never run out of subjects to talk about, by using the storytelling technique. - How to position yourself in the emerging relationship to be and continue to be the alpha-male and to control the upcoming sequence of events. - How to make a girl want you without seeming like a pervert. To handle the art of sexualisation like a God. - How to appear mysterious and make her crazy for you in a short amount of time. - How to be light-hearted, funny and endearing by using humour. The examples will be as real as can be and modelled on real conversations. All of the extracts from discussions which will be presented to you are not made up but rewritten versions of, or strongly inspired by, my past conversations: everything is authentic (except the names used for obvious confidentiality reasons). Ready to be part of the elite? The group of 5% of men who seduce Facebook, Tinder, Happn, Bumble, Match.com, OkCupid, Instagram and many others. And who sleep with all the women of their dreams.

Girl Talk - Jacqueline Mroz 2018-11-13

A veteran science reporter's investigation into the fascinating and distinctive nature of women's friendships In Girl Talk, New York Times science reporter Jacqueline Mroz takes on the science of female friendship -- a phenomenon that's as culturally powerful as it is individually mysterious. She examines friendship from a range of angles, from the historical to the experiential, with a scientific analysis that reveals new truths about what leads us to connect and build alliances, and then "break up" when a friendship no longer serves us. Mroz takes a new look at how friendship has evolved throughout history, showing how friends tend to share more genetic commonalities than strangers, and that the more friends we have, the more empathy and pleasure chemicals are present in our brains. Scientists have also reported that friendship directly influences health and longevity; women with solid, supportive friendships experience fewer "fight or flight" impulses and stronger heart function, and women without friendships tend to develop medical challenges on par with those associated with smoking and excessive body weight. With intimate reporting and insightful analysis, Mroz reveals new awareness about the impact of women's friendships, and how they shape our culture at large.
