Art of Kissing - Hugh Morris 1995-06

The dictionary says that a kiss is "a salute made by touching with the lips pressed closely together and suddenly parting them." From this it is quite obvious that, although a dictionary may know something about words, it knows nothing about kissing. If we are to get the real meaning of the word kiss, instead of going to the old fogies who compile dictionaries, we should go to the poets who still have the hot blood of youth coursing in their veins. For, instance, Coleridge called a kiss, "nectar breathing." Shakespeare says that a kiss is -a "seal of love. Martial, that old Roman poet who hid ample opportunity to do research work on the subject, says that a kiss was "the fragrance of balsam extracted- from aromatic trees; the rise odor yielded by the teeming saffron; the perfume of fruits mellowing in their winter buds; the flowery meadows in the summer; amber warmed by the hand of a girl; a bouquet of flowers that attracts the bees." Yes, a kiss is all of these ... and more. Others have said that a kiss was: the balm of love; the first and last of joys; love's language; the seal of bliss; love's tribute; the melting sip; the nectar of Venus; the language of love. Yes, a kiss is all of these . . . and more. For a kiss can never be absolutely defined. Because each kiss is different from the one before and the one after. just as no two people are alike, so are no two kisses alike. For it is people who make kisses. Real, live people pulsating with life and love and extreme happiness. In this book you will learn: Different Kinds of Kisses, Why People Kiss, Why Kissing Is Pleasant, Approved Methods of Kissing, Kisses Are But Preludes to Love, Preparing for the Kiss, How to Approach a Girl, The Technique of Kissing, How to Kiss Girls with Different Sizes of Mouths, Enjoy the Thrills of Kissing, The French "Soul" Kiss, Put Variety into Your Kisses, The "Vacuum" Kiss, The "Spiritual" Kiss, The Eyelash Kiss, The "Pain" Kiss The "Nip" Kiss, Variation Kisses Are the Spice of Love, Electric Kissing Parties, The Dancing Kiss, The Surprise Kiss, Kissing Under the Mistletoe, Kissing Games...and much more

People Go Crazy over Love like Bees Go Wild over Honey! - David Heller 2014-09-11

People Go Crazy over Romance like Bees Go Wild over Honey is a hilarious and memorable look at children's views of romance, dating, and kissing. Directly from the spontaneous comments of four- to thirteen-year-olds, the reader is taken on a lively and outrageous journey through the nature of attraction, how to make yourself more attractive, courtship etiquette, adult dating habits, how to create a relationship, how the genders are different, the children's tips for romantically challenged grown-ups, and what happens if, by some chance, two people actually fall in love. Unlike their predecessors, this cohort of youngsters understands that the Internet is a common vehicle for meeting new people. Thus, they welcome with alacrity the opportunity to write their own dating site biographies and describe in detail what photos they would post. They also share with us, without self-consciousness, what they themselves would text on the next day after a first date—both if they hit it off with someone and if the date falls short of expectations. The resulting missives are as poignant as they are funny, and they say so much about the human predicament of wanting relationships so earnestly and yet finding them so elusive. Here is a sample of typical choice offerings: "In the beginning, you didn't have much of a choice because the only choice was the big dumb caveman in the next cave over" (Samantha, age 11). "Poets have been curious about love because to this very day, nobody at all understands women" (Robert, age 10). "Being romantic means you give a girl a kiss and a diamond ring, and she says: 'That's very romantic. Can I have another?'" (Javier, age 8). "I like girls because they are elegant and they always carry tissues with them when you need one" (Efrem, age 7). "If I fibbed on a dating profile, I would say I was top-rated in my class for being hot!" (Eli, age 9). "On Christmas, if you kiss under the mistletoe, you are supposed to get married. But if it happens by accident, God might let you off the hook" (Sandy, age 9). "For lovers, Valentine's Day is the day you kiss and kiss until you get all puckered out and just eat chocolates as big as your heart" (Claire, age 10). "There is ten times more kissing on Valentine's Day, so people should get the next day off just to recover!" (Taylor, age 9).

How to Fall in Love with Anyone - Mandy Len Catron 2018-02-01

In 2014, 33-year-old Mandy Len Catron went on a date with an acquaintance. They decided to try an experiment: inspired by a study designed to create romantic feelings, Mandy and Mark spent the evening asking each other 36 increasingly intimate questions, wondering if it would lead to them falling in love. In How to Fall in Love with Anyone, this experiment is Catron's starting point for investigating what it means to love someone and to be loved, and how we present our love to the world. What makes love last? Can love ever work the way it seems to in films, books and social media? Is there a "right" way to fall in love? In these candid, charming and wise essays, Catron blends memoir with cultural and social commentary on the psychology, biology, history and literature of love. How to Fall in Love with Anyone is a deeply personal, yet universal investigation into the one thing we all want—or think we want—more than anything. Includes "To Fall in Love with Anyone, Do This", one of the most popular essays to appear in the New York Times' "Modern Love" column "In our age of total romantic confusion, Mandy Len Catron is a voice of good sense, warm humor, and consoling wisdom. Through the lens of her own relationships, she teaches us—with a deft, convincing intelligence—some of the vital moves in the art of love."

—Alain de Botton, internationally bestselling author of How Proust Can Change Your Life and The Course of Love MANDY LEN CATRON lives in Vancouver, British Columbia. Her writing has appeared in the New York Times and the Washington Post. She writes about love and love stories at The Love Story Project, and teaches English and creative writing at the University of British Columbia.
