Desert Kings Book 3: Gibran Jennifer Lewis 2015-01-26 Widowed queen Aliyah has resigned herself to a life of loneliness until a rough-mannered stranger intrudes on her solitude. A professional warrior and protector, Gibran has kept his distance from the palace he once called home--until his royal half brothers invite him into their midst. By profession and inclination, he keeps his emotions on lockdown, but finds himself falling under Aliyah's quiet spell. Will these two lonely people dare to seize the love they crave? EXCERPT: His dark eyes seemed to stare right past her quiet and unassuming façade and see into the darkest reaches of her soul. Into the cold, lonely places where she hid when her late husband took his pleasure with her. Into the cobwebbed corners where she'd stashed the inconvenient needs and desires that had no place in her life. Then he kissed her again. This time she kissed him back harder. Her arms wrapped around his neck and she heard Megu's chain drop to the ground, but she didn't care. Gibran's lips welcomed hers and heat flared between them, lighting a fire that spread to her belly and limbs. Knees shaking, she clung to him, feeling the thick, hard, masculine shape of his arms and back, letting her fingers grope into his thick hair, drawing in the masculine scent of his skin. She kissed him with every ounce of hope and desire that she'd shoved deep down inside her, letting them bubble up in a mad and crazy explosion of passion. Veronica: Stranded with the Sheikh (FREE!) Playing For Fun Tracey Alvarez 2015 Is Ford Komeke New Zealand's most reluctant Bachelor? Wanted: A woman for Ford. Maori mechanic Ford Komeke can't deny he could use an up-skill in the dating arena. It's a local in-joke that his game, as far as women go, sucks. Thanks to the meddling of New Zealand's worst octogenarian matchmaker, he's got an online dating profile, a new wardrobe, and a haircut from Stewart Island's sexy hairdresser, Holly Parker. But since he's well and truly mired in the friendzone with Holly, what's the harm in exploring his options? A little jealousy could work wonders. Offered: Dream job with a catch. What do you say when you're offered an un-turn-downable career opportunity? You say, hell-to-the-yeah! Only there's a problem. To get the dream job Holly must leave Stewart Island and her two best friends, Shaye and Ford. But if Holly can distract Shaye with wedding planning and set Ford up with a nice girl so she can stop imagining him naked, neither will notice if she exits stage right. Neither will notice if her feelings for Ford stop being strictly platonic. Warning: One kiss is never enough. As addictive as the chocolate stash Holly hides in her fridge, one kiss forces them out of the friendzone--way out of the friendzone. Heat and hunger explode, but the ugliness in Ford's past hold his heart hostage. Playing for fun or playing for keeps? Holly and Ford must decide because the consequences of falling in love means that someone's heart or someone's dream will ultimately end up shattered. Due South Tamsen Parker 2016-10-17 Lucy Miller has worked her way up from coffee-fetcher and copy-maker to invaluable assistant. She's proud of her accomplishments, but she's looking forward to a break from her demanding boss; a visit home is just the Christmas treat she needs. Diligent and unassuming, Chanoch Evans has avoided relationships not just out of shyness, but because he doesn't feel like he has anything to offer--most of his resources are devoted to his war-veteran younger brother. When a desperate plea from their boss ruins their holiday plans, Lucy and Evans are stuck in an otherwise empty office with only each other for company. After catching their boss in flagrante, they start to see that each other's mild workplace personas might be just the tip of the iceberg. Despite the prohibition against fraternization between employees, there may be more than kissing going on underneath this mistletoe...

Plus, a woman like Lucy deserves more than I could ever give her. I get to be the luckiest guy on earth and have a Christmas quickie with her while the office is empty, but it can't be more than that. Desert Kings Book 1: Osman Jennifer Lewis 2015-01-26 Royal heir Osman Al Kilanjar must choose a bride to claim his throne, but he's tired of the gold diggers who flock around him and knows he'll recognize his true mate when he meets her. Film producer Samantha Bechtel has her life mapped out like the shooting script of one of her documentaries—but it takes a detour when she breaks down in the desert and is rescued by the commanding and charismatic sheikh. Osman decides to put the local marriage festival she's filming to good use and claim his bride. Sam is shocked by Osman's bold seduction—and even more surprised when she finds herself falling under his spell. EXCERPT: The scent of his skin filled her nostrils, binding them closer together. She wanted to inhale him all the way down to her core and let him fill her up. The roughness of his chin excited her, along with his hard jaw and the thick, roping muscles of his back. He felt so different from any man she'd ever kissed before: more masculine, more powerful, more demanding—and more giving. Passion crackled in his touch, and she could hear it in his breath. He was a king—or almost king—with an entire country at his command, and he was totally immersed in kissing her, Samantha Bechtel, mild-mannered producer of public television documentaries who didn't have a scrap of makeup on and who had been wearing the same easy-care travel attire all day long. His fingers pressed into the flesh of her hips, and her body responded with a flare of heat at its core. They'd done nothing but kiss yet already she felt thoroughly ravished. And she wanted more. Beneath the Christmas Stars Tracey Alvarez 2018 Wish upon a Christmas star tonight... Karen Wallace's festive spirit has gone A.W.O.L three days before Christmas. Her perfect solution? Take a road trip to spend the holidays with her friend's family. Then a broken down car leaves Karen stranded at her friend's brother's house, along with his Grinch-like but kind-of-cute, roommate, Art. Short of Santa's magic direct from the North Pole, nothing will make the next few days bearable. Not even Art's stolen kisses beneath the Christmas stars. Art Donnelly doesn't believe in magic anymore—the Christmas kind especially. As a scientist working at one of New Zealand's most picturesque star-gazing observatories, he believes that what you see is what you get. Planets, solar systems, and black holes are more reliable than joy, peace, and love. But love doesn't play by the rules of the universe, and Karen might just change his perception of the Silly Season forever. Praise for Tracey Alvarez's books! Tobias "Slim" Jackson has the perfect life as a pilot on Gansett Island in the summer and in Florida in the winter. He's happiest when he's in the air, or at least that was the case before last summer when he met Erin Barton, Gansett Island's newest lighthouse keeper. Now he can't seem to find his usual enthusiasm for flying, winter in the sunny South or anything that doesn't include her. Erin has been stuck on pause since she lost her twin brother. She'll tell you herself that her life has been a hot mess since Toby died. After dropping out of law school, she's flitted from one pointless job to another, existing rather than truly living. Then she comes to Gansett Island to take over as the new lighthouse keeper and meets Slim, who happens to share her beloved brother's first name. That small coincidence is enough to convince Erin that she needs to spend more time with the dashing pilot—except for the fact that he's spending the winter more than a thousand miles from her. Now Slim's come home to Gansett for the holidays and to hopefully pick up where he left off with Erin. He's got twelve days before he's due back in Florida to finish out the remainder of his winter obligations. A lot can happen in twelve days, but will it be enough to convince Erin that it's time to start truly living again?
