

Raindrops Of Love For A Thirsty World

Blue Tear Called Love - Irena Docheva 2012-07

"After years of wandering around the world of love, I found the truth about it. I met face-to-face with that wonderful fairy Love, and she shared with me that despite the pain that was tearing her apart, she is very happy and didn't want to part with it. In my fantasy, that fairy was standing smiling among the deserted sands and was holding a heart in love. There was blood dripping from her hands, but she looked hard and firm. She split the heart in two and threw the two halves away from her. They fell with ominous strength on the glowing sand, started burning, and burned away. The fairy told me that that had been my heart, and that this evil destiny awaited it. She opened her scarlet lips and said that love hurts and it was like a cloud, which carried many tears to my eyes in love. Nevertheless, I decided to follow my heart, and it was saying: "When Love looks you in the eyes, you will know, I will tell you, and then you take it right away, hold it tight, hide it here with me, to be happy."

God's Love Downpours in Raindrops - Jeffrey "Van" Perry 2012-03-01

Bob Marley sings, "In the abundance of water, the fool is thirsty. Rat Race, Rat Race, this is the Rat Race." I would like to humbly add, "With all the food in this world, still millions die hungry daily or many go to bed hungry." The rat does not know any better. It seems that we have lost our way and all sense of direction. Our priorities have been compromised. We have been searching for great wonders and great feats, and have missed our higher purpose, which is the survival of our race of humankind. We have "chased the dragon," and we have "feared the boogie man!" And once, when we have fallen short, then we realized that we cannot change anything, since we have never actually faced our real fears - "fears of ourselves." We are the ones who breathe the same air, who drink the same water, and who eat the same food. The abundance of our planet has provided all of these, for all of us; yet, we have to date been much too despondent to realize this. We have chased a one-time pleasure of being first or of victory over one another. We have divided and subdivided the Earth so that we have not seen each other as brothers and sisters. Now, that all has changed. In our "chase of our phantom dream in the mysteries of Space," we find ourselves left here in a global universe. We have globalized what was global already and we have discovered the Earth and her peoples to be more precious than we could have ever imagined, precisely, for they are who we are. (If there were another race of people out there, those aliens would only know us as the people of Earth, anyway!) This is the truth for those who are so inclined to believe, and who now can see this truth. For we have been blinded to what is in front of us - to our worthiness as the Earth's fruit, here on earth. With God's grace and mercy, may we tarry on, but now, let us be kind to the Earth, to her people, and to ourselves. This is what this book, God's Love Downpours in Raindrops comprises or speaks of. We can only hope that we find our paths; it is not too late for us, yet to be in the downpour, as we are blessed with an everlasting love in all our presence here.

How has it been so far? “Don’t ask. I have been bending over a plastic bag filled with vomit and these terrible mood swings, I survived through it all. Make her understand that it’s not being easy on me either I am going through the pregnancy myself. How do I handle her mood swings and her unpredictable behaviour, the hormonal rages. It’s as if I have my foot in the mouth. I don’t know what to do or what to say?” And this is a man describing the start of the pregnancy. A helpless man who would endlessly watch his woman throw up rush and get a bucket or plastic bag by the bed side saving her the trip to the toilet. “There is not much of information available for expecting fathers said another exasperated father to be. Rakhi write about how we men can take care of our spouses at this time? Painting Love - OJ LEIGH

In a world where sight reigns supreme and colors paint the canvas of life, there exists a tale of art and love that defies conventional boundaries.

'Painting Love' invites you to step into a realm where the senses intertwine and emotions take on vibrant hues, as this enchanting novel delves into the extraordinary journey of Freya, a gifted painter whose world is forever altered when she loses her sight. Yet, her story becomes one of resilience, creativity, and boundless love. As Freya grapples with the challenges of her new reality, she discovers solace in her art, seeking to share the magic of her craft with others. In the heart of the city, she opens an art studio that transcends the limits of vision. Here, she uses touch, emotion, and intuition to guide those who enter, a haven for souls in search of healing and expression. Amidst the studio's captivating ambiance, we meet Paul, a sculptor burdened by his own past, haunted by memories that threaten to erode his sense of purpose.

Drawn by the unconventional teachings of Freya, he embarks on a transformative journey of self-discovery. Under Freya's patient guidance, a unique and intuitive mentorship develops, and as the two artists navigate their personal struggles, a profound connection blossoms, a connection that transcends the boundaries of sight and unveils a world where emotions manifest as a symphony of colors and shapes. In a society where emotions often remain unspoken and memories are locked away, Freya and Paul wield their artistic talents to paint love onto the canvas of their lives. Their journey becomes a beacon of hope, a testament to the transformative power of art, and a celebration of the indomitable human spirit. 'Painting Love' is an exploration of the unseen, a celebration of the unspoken, and a revelation of the extraordinary within the seemingly ordinary. As you turn the pages, you'll be transported into a universe where touch becomes a language, where art bridges the gaps between souls, and where love transcends the confines of perception. Join us on this captivating voyage through the realm of art and emotions, a journey that will leave your heart touched, your spirit uplifted, and your appreciation for the limitless power of love and creativity forever transformed.

Life is a carefully spun web of events connecting the past, present and the future. If we start living our lives with this realization, then life will not be a random series of sunsets and sunrises. Every day will become exciting like each sip of our favorite beverage. It is only when we get stuck in a painful memory of the past or refuse to be grateful for the present that we see darkness in our future. A cup of coffee awakens an individual to kick start their day by firing the cells in the brain. Words strung together in a quote, poetry or a short story can give you the same thrill as caffeine. Here are words to calm your soul, start a revolution within, mend a broken heart and inspire your weary spirits. Who cares if the cup is half empty or overflowing as long as it is a cup of coffee? Tea lovers, please replace coffee with tea. Early days; or, The Wesleyan scholar's guide - 1870

This book is written with the guidance of the Holy Spirit who speaks to the author in the form of the Father and the Son. It follows the path of Jesus from the book of Psalms and speaks to the author directly from certain scriptures, giving her daily messages to strengthen and encourage women who are experiencing trials and tribulations in their lives. The Holy Spirit uses some of the author's own experiences to reach out and touch women. Scriptures are brought to life for readers as they are able to relive them and fully understand why they were written, applying the meanings in their present lives. Natural Childbirth and the Christian Family - Helen Wessel 1963
