I Am Not a Mistake, I Am Meant to Be - Garlena L. Hines 2007-12

I Am Not a Mistake, I Am Meant To Be will bring healing, peace, and restoration to women who have suffered from and been haunted by sexual abuse and its residues. As you read this powerful book, you will see how the magnificent power of God can take your "mess" and use it to bring healing to others. If you have been sexually abused, you will be encouraged to seek God for healing and to walk in your divine destiny. You will be challenged to move from victim to victor. You will understand that God has a purpose for your life. You are not a mistake, you are meant to be! Author Garlena Hines, a "wounded healer," transparently shares the years of sexual abuse she endured and the residue of pain she overcame. She openly shares her struggle to find her identity, her painful journey through therapy, and the power of her relationship with Christ that now allows her to minister freely across the nation. You can learn more about Evangelist Hines and her ministry by visiting www.glhinesministries.com.

LGBTIQ + people and Pentecostals - Marius Nel

This book provides Pentecostals with the necessary equipment and motivation to contribute to one of Africa's important ethical challenges, LGBTIQ+ people and Africa's homophobic reaction to them. The study is aimed at Christian believers and pastors, to empower them with relevant information about the issue. The issue is discussed in terms of existing biological, psychological, anthropological, sociological, philosophical and queer theory knowledge, along with a study of the biblical texts, in order to answer the question, what should a responsible African Pentecostal response be towards the LGBTIQ+ issue, and what should Pentecostals' attitude be towards such people?

Pentecostals & Sexual Abuse - Cae Cordell 2002-03

When the church ignores or denies the experience of sexual abuse of women and children within its midst, what does this mean to the faithful? The author explores this complex issue. (Christian Religion)

Child of Woe, Child of Sorrow - Patricia L. Loranger 2011-02

I was born through the sin of my mother and father. I was continually reminded of this through my tender years as a child. When your own dad tells you that you're the worthless product of a male hooker, that you're not pretty or smart enough to be of his blood, you hang your head in shame. I was humiliated by the piercing stares I got from those he informed of this. I was exposed to witchcraft. My mother was an alcoholic, and my dad had extramarital affairs with numerous women. As a child, I was also the victim of sexual assault. At the age of ten, my life took a turn for the better. My mother bore twin babies. Because she rejected the boy child, I was taught how to care for him. For the first time in my life someone showed me love, and I loved him back. I had never felt love before then. If my mom and dad did love me, they never showed it. My baby brother was two when he died. I watched as my mother murdered him. His life had given me joy, and now he was gone. I stopped communicating. Between this, my deformities, and my learning disability, I became a victim to all who knew me. I was commonly called retarded by teachers, students, and my own father. Even strangers on the street would call me names. This led me to become an unstable adult. As a woman, my life was a mess. I had no idea how to show love, or even what it felt like. Therefore, I damaged every relationship I had. Then I met Jesus. He taught me agape love. I learned to love like Jesus does. The Holy Ghost set me free of over a thousand demons. In every way, He set me free. I am living proof that our God reigns, that He can take the most corrupted mess and create something of beauty. In my soul, I was an ugly duckling, but Jesus made me into a beautiful swan. What the Lord has done for me, He can do for you. About the Author: Patricia Loranger, formerly Pattie Campbell, has successfully served and loved the Lord for over twenty-seven years, having received Christ as her Lord in August 1984, in the lovely yet humble Pentecostal Church of Ingersoll, Ontario. She has made her home in this pretty little town with Maurice, her husband of thirty-years, and two precious little dogs, Liesa and Sweet Pea.

Sisters, Mothers, Daughters: Pentecostal Perspectives on Violence against Women - 2022-06-13

This volume explores issues and themes related to violence against women. The contributing authors approach the topic from a Pentecostal perspective both in the way they assess the pervasiveness and urgency of the problem and in the solutions they propose.

Breaking the Silence on Spiritual Abuse - L. Oakley 2013-10-17

Providing a balance of empirical research and practical concerns, this book explores the definitions and historical context of spiritual abuse, outlines a process model for the different stages of spiritual abuse and includes strategies for therapists working with survivors of spiritual abuse.

Report of Case Study No. 18 - Attorney's 2015-10-30

Hillsong Church - Miranda Klaver 2021-07-09

This book highlights the expansion of the influential Pentecostal Hillsong Church global megachurch network from Australia across global cities. Ethnographic research in Amsterdam and New York City shows that global cities harbor nodes in transnational religious networks in which media play a crucial role. By taking a lived religion approach, media is regarded as integral part of everyday practices of interaction, expression and consumption of religion. Key question raised is how processes of mediatization shape, alter and challenge this thriving cosmopolitan expression of Pentecostalism. Current debates in the study of religion are addressed: religious belonging and community in global cities; the interrelation between media technology, religious practices and beliefs; religion, media and social engagement in global cities; media and emerging modes of religious leadership and authority. In this empirical study, pressing societal issues like institutional responses to sexual abuse of children, views on gender roles, misogyny and mediated constructions of femininity are discussed.

Report of Case Study No. 18 - Australia. Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse 2015

As part of the Royal Commission's investigation of how institutions respond to child sexual abuse, it will conduct case studies of selected incidents to more fully understand the institutional and systemic factors involved. This report examines the response of the Australian Christian Churches - a Pentecostal movement, formerly known as the Assemblies of God in Australia - and two affiliated churches to allegations of child sexual abuse. In particular, it investigates the systems, policies, practices and procedures for the reporting of, and responding to, allegations of child sexual abuse by Assemblies of God in Australia and its affiliates Sydney Christian Life Centre, Hills Christian Life Centre (now Hillsong Church), and Northside Christian College and the Northside Christian Centre (now Encompass Church), in general and in the cases of allegations made against William Francis 'Frank' Houston, Kenneth Sandilands, and Jonathan Baldwin. The case study's website also includes transcripts, opening addresses, and witness lists from the related public hearings held in Sydney from 7 to 17 October 2014.

Vietnamese Evangelicals and Pentecostalism - Vince Le 2018-11-05

In Vietnamese Evangelicals and Pentecostalism, Vince Le offers an analysis of the historical, theological, and social conditions that shape the Vietnamese evangelical tradition and give rise to the growth of pentecostalism among evangelicals in contemporary Vietnam.

Progressive Pentecostalism - Derick Wilson 2013-12-26

The Progressive Christian movement and the Pentecostal movement represent the intellectual and excitement poles of the current church. Finding ways to fuse these two movements to create an excitement to church that is also intentionally making stand for justice and intellectual study of the Bible is the key to transformation of church and ushering in a new era of passion fueled by reflection.

Getting Past the Past - G. Avery Wilson 2008-10-08

This story chronicles the life of one man's triumph over a childhood filled with abuse, adversity, pain and tragedy. It illustrates how anyone can overcome any challenge they face to live a full and productive life when God is the center a person's life. The author was inspired to share the nit and grit of his personal testimony with the world in an effort to be transparent to illustrate how God can and will deliver anyone from anything...if they commit to the plan that God has for them. The detailed and often graphic account of the things he experienced enables the reader to know and understand the true power of God's Spirit; the Word of God and the Holy Spirit. It will help millions to obtain the necessary strength to use their trials and tribulations as stepping stones to greatness instead of crutches/excuses for failure/weakness! This title is intended for readers ages 16 and older due to the detailed and often graphic depiction of the author's life story.

Pentecostalism and Cultism in South Africa - Mookgo Solomon Kgatle 2021-02-28

Pentecostalism is a growing movement in world Christianity. However, the growth of Pentecostalism in South Africa has faced some challenges, including the abuse of religion by some prophets. This book first names these prophets and the churches they lead in South Africa, and then makes use of literary and media analysis to analyse the religious practices by the prophets in relation to cultism. Additionally, the book analyses the "celebrity cult" and how it helps promote the prophets in South Africa. The purpose of this book is threefold: First, to draw parallels between the abuse of religion and cultism. Second, to illustrate that it is cultic tendencies, including the celebrity cult, that has given rise to many prophets in South Africa. Last, to showcase that the challenge for many of these prophets is that the Pentecostal tradition is actually anti-cultism, and thus there is a need for them to rethink their cultic tendencies in order for them to be truly relevant in a South African context.

Counseling and Psychotherapy with Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians - Geoffrey W. Sutton 2020-09-17

The purpose of this book is to help mental health professionals increase their cultural competence to better serve Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians who are congregants in the world's fastest-growing religious movement. My focus is twofold. First, I aim to increase the reader's awareness and knowledge about Christians who live their faith within Pentecostal cultures. Second, I hope to increase the reader's knowledge about the assessment and treatment of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians with mental health needs based on a review of research and recommendations from experienced clinicians. My approach to assessment and treatment is the commonly held view that best practices are holistic. Therefore, I will attempt to integrate Pentecostal and Charismatic spirituality with assessment and treatment in ways that respect the spirituality of the person seeking treatment and enhances therapeutic outcomes. "The first part of the book can help all readers...understand people who live into that religion. The second part of the book is a practical and insightful guide to effective helping for psychological difficulties. I highly recommend this book to anyone who seeks to understand and help Pentecostals and Charismatics." —Everett L. Worthington, Jr., Commonwealth Professor Emeritus ***** "...a well written, comprehensive, and very helpful guide to understanding and counseling Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians. It is a substantial and unique contribution to Christian counseling and also to the field of counseling and psychotherapy. I highly recommend it as essential reading for everyone interested or involved in counseling Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians." —Rev. Siang-Yang Tan, PhD, Senior Professor of Psychology, Fuller Theological Seminary and author of Counseling and Psychotherapy: A Christian Perspective, and Shepherding God's People. a must read not only for Pentecostal and Charismatic counselors but for anyone in the mental health field." —Tony Richie, D. Min., Ph. D., Associate Professor of Theology Pentecostal Theological Seminary, Cleveland, TN

Sexual Abuse and the Oneness Pentecostal Apostolic Churches - Time for Action! 'My People Are Destroyed for Lack of Knowledge' ( - Pauline Francis 2014-08-10

Based on trends in society at large it becomes more apparent that the oneness Pentecostal Apostolic church will not be unaffected by cases of sexual abuse. The intent of this resource is not at all to criticize any Oneness Pentecostal Apostolic church's dogma on this issue (and thus provide objections/resistance), but rather to integrate related secular knowledge to biblical truths. Significant critical questions and dilemmas will be discussed throughout the text, while unmerited technicalities will be avoided. Ethical dilemmas presented in this book are meant to formulate discussion within & across Oneness Pentecostal Apostolic church organizations. It is not my intent to provide "the answer" (a dogma per se). The dilemmas in this text, however, demand solid answers before a crisis situation occurs. Preventative measures are key! God's Law has now changed. Why do some brethren still risk their anointing, character, reputation, position, family, blessings, careers, and the like?

Anglicans and Pentecostals in Dialogue - David Hilborn 2023-09-22

This is the first comprehensive book on Anglican and Pentecostal ecumenical relations. It introduces both movements with a particular focus on their approaches to ecumenism, before exploring sacraments, ministry, ecclesiology, pneumatology, and mission with respect to both traditions. As well as providing more theological and historical discussion, the book also offers personal accounts of local, national, and international ecumenical engagement by both Anglicans and Pentecostals. It is written predominantly—although not exclusively—from a British perspective. Even so, as the first major published dialogue between these two global Christian traditions, the book will be of value to all interested in Anglicanism, Pentecostalism, and ecumenism.

Cult Child - Vennie Kocsis 2014-06-26

In 1973, Jane Caprin takes her three children from their family home and joins a cult, Sam Fife's "The Move." Cult Child is told from the voice of the youngest daughter, Sila Caprin, a victim of severe physical, sexual and mental trauma under the guise of Sam Fife's religious doctrines. Sila's life consists of fighting to maintain just a glimmer of her own humanity. With an older brother who runs away, a sister who is often silent in the hopes of being unnoticed, a mother who believes everything is God's will, Sila fights to survive in a world where she is insignificant and unprotected -- until one day her sister becomes a victim of an act that in its horror becomes their savior. Based on real life events.

Pentecostal Ecclesiology - Chris Green 2016-06-27

This reader in Pentecostal ecclesiology provides key essays written by leading Pentecostal and charismatic scholars addressing the theology of the church, sacraments, and ministry.

A Hill Too Far - Cae Cordell 2002-03

Cae Cordell's dramatic sequel to House of Darkness. The tale of her own life as a child in the hills of Arkansas, of Cherokee and Irish descent, and her spiritual struggle out of the sexual abuse from her mother, and also verbal, psychological and physical abuse of her parents and later her husband. She tells of her work in the Pentecostal churches as a minister, and the defense of the abuse from her husband by the leadership of those churches in the name of wifely obedience to the husband, and her defense of her children. (See also: Pentecostals and Sexual Abuse: Institutional Denial or Healing Ministry? -- upcoming, from this same author.)Cae Cordell's story is a heroic tale of rising up out of horror into a new sense of self, and a new life in accordance with her faith. Cae not only has fought hard to recover her own soul, as it were, but has been for some years now counseling abuse victims, and in the state prisons, counseling abusers, to get them to a point where they can see the consequences of their actions. Among other things, in a poll of 500 abusers in the state prison system, almost all were discovered to have been themselves sexually and morally abused. This is a sin that just keeps on giving.

Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies, Volume 20, Number 1 - Dave Johnson 2018-04-03

THE JOURNAL SEEKS TO PROVIDE A FORUM: To encourage serious theological thinking and articulation by Pentecostals/Charismatics in Asia; to promote interaction among Asian Pentecostals/Charismatics and dialogue with other Christian traditions; to stimulate creative contextualization of the Christian faith; and to provide a means for Pentecostals/Charismatics to share their theological reflections.
