Falling in Love 101 - Edward F. Caldwell 2010-12

One of several purposes for this memoir "Falling in Love 101" is to address the issue of "intimacy we have with ourselves, with our own bodies (and its parts) and the prospect of intimacy with others. This little book is also an attempt to mount a kind of sexual curriculum- especially for young people, and others who must "wait" for the marriage part of life. Intimacy for many of us is still fraught with queasiness, awkwardness. To indulge in any kind of sexual activity for most people (!!??), many people (!!??) some people some of the time, brings great ecstatic pleasure! Of necessity, we take a hard look at intercourse, with all its sexual stimulation, erratic behavior, and other intricacies. Woven together are biblical, literary, historical commentary, on the theme, and of how in some instances the specifics of Christian revelation in both the New Testament and the Church are not as helpful as we would like them to be. This treatise is also the beginning of a fanciful folk tale, launched by the author's own "folk."
