Women of the Raj Margaret MacMillan 2018-05-31 The apparent glamour of the Indian Raj continues to fascinate long after the British quit the subcontinent. But along with the beauty of the Indian landscape and the privilege of servants and holidays in hill stations, British women in that vanished world faced challenges and fears that came from being an alien ruling minority. These women were at the heart of the imperial enterprise. It was their role to support the mens work, raise the children and attempt to replicate British society thousands of miles from home. They struggled in the face of heat, illness, loneliness and boredom as well as different customs, languages and religions. The distinguished historian and bestselling author Margaret MacMillan, drawing on letters home alone with her two young children, hears footsteps in the living room, she tries to convince herself it's the sleep deprivation. She's been hearing things these days. Startling at loud noises. Imagining the worst-case scenario. It's what mothers do, she knows. But then the footsteps come again, and she catches a glimpse of movement. Suddenly Molly finds herself face-to-face with an intruder who knows far too much about her and her family. As she attempts to protect those she loves most, Molly must also acknowledge her own frailty. Molly slips down an existential rabbit hole where she must confront the dualities of motherhood: the ecstasy and the dread; the languor and the ferocity; the banality and the transcendence as the book hurtles toward a mind-bending conclusion. In The Need, Helen Phillips has created a subversive, speculative thriller that comes to life through blazing, arresting prose and gorgeous, haunting imagery. "Brilliant" (Entertainment Weekly), "grotesque and lovely" (The New York Times Book Review, Editor's Choice), and "wildly captivating" (O, The Oprah Magazine), The Need is a glorious celebration of the bizarre and beautiful nature of our everyday lives and "showcases an extraordinary writer at her electrifying best" (Publishers Weekly, starred review).

Let's be real for a sec. Most of us don't have time for an hour of yoga or 30 minutes of meditation every day for stress management. We're overwhelmed as it is. Our spiritual practice shouldn't add to that. They're powerful, life-changing meditations and principles, modernized and broken down into easy-to-digest techniques to fit your lifestyle. Some example life-changing tools featured in Miracles Now are: · Happiness is a choice you make. · Clean up your side of the street. · To feel supported, support yourself. · Peace is in your pulse. · Why am I talking? · Peace begins with YOU. · The miracle comes quietly. · Positive-perception playlists are powerful. · When you're feeling helpless, help someone. Gabrielle says, "This book offers soulful methods for achieving peace drawn from some of the world's greatest spiritual teachings. What's unique about the techniques I've chosen is that you can use them to quickly clear your stress and fear any time—even if you only have a minute to spare." Throughout the book, Gabby shares spiritual principles from both A Course in Miracles and Kundalini yoga and meditation. These tools can help your mental health and help you find your true purpose and inner strength. When you practice these techniques, fear will melt away, inspiration will spring up, and a sense of peace will set in. "Gabrielle is the real thing. I respect her work immensely."— Dr. Wayne Dyer

Fuck It Therapy John Parkin 2012-11 If every therapist and psychotherapist on the planet could repeat this to their clients, like a mantra, again and again, there would be fewer therapists and psychotherapists. Because it works. Very quickly. Realising that what you're worrying about and stressing over doesn't really matter so much in the grand scheme of things is the door to freedom and healing.

Spirit Junkie Gabrielle Bernstein 2011-10-03 'Stylish, straight-talking and switched on... her tell-it-like-it-is tactics are attracting a new audience.' Sunday Times Style magazine In Spirit Junkie, Gabrielle Bernstein shares the story of her spiritual journey and shows you how you, too, can overcome the fears that paralyse you and manifest the greatest joy in your life. Before she became an international bestselling author and teacher, Gabrielle Bernstein kept a journal of self-loathing, self-doubt and calorie consumption for more than twenty years. That all changed when she discovered A Course in Miracles, which taught her that much of what she feared in life was not frightening at all and, in many cases, not even real. Bernstein guides you through the life-changing lessons that she has lived and learned in three parts: · 'The Detour into Fear' explains how our minds go wrong and why we become accustomed to fearful ways of being. · 'The Answer' provides the necessary tools for reconditioning our minds back to peace and joy. · 'The Miracle' helps you maintain your happiness and share it with the world. By understanding and changing our perceptions, resentments will release, hang-ups will melt away and a renewed faith in joy will be reignited.
