Language of the Heart - Mohamad Rezar 2005-07

Dear Reader: Inside the covers of Language of the Heart you will read letters written from Jonathan to his Sweetheart, Princess Mahsa Elaine Tabori. But why, what caused Mohamad to assemble a book of nothing but letters? Why would a book of letters, all written from one person to another, be listed and sold as a romance novel? Because "Romance" is a story, an adventure between two hearts that become one through friendship and Love. Language of the Heart could be labeled as a diary or a journal, but each letter is a token of love; a gift from Jonathan's heart, unveiling himself and his love, romancing the one that his heart loves. By reading the letters, you will come to know of the bonding of friendship and love that Jonathan felt for Princess Mahsa. You will come to know Jonathan as Princess Mahsa came to know him, and see the heart of Princess Mahsa as Jonathan knew her heart. See the romance unfold that caused their hearts to become as one. Two hearts in communication, speaking as one.

MESSAGE TO MORTALS - Onuoha Emmanuel Izuchukwu 2023-11-30

Poetry is the soul's state captured and made feasibly relatable with words that stem from the soul's unseen depths. However, in this epoch, poetry and its unmatched prowess are on a gargantuan decline; and because of this doleful waning of poetry, "Message To Mortals" was engendered to reinstate poetry to its position globally and to show its colossal importance in the literary world and to mortals in general. "Message To Mortals" is a compilation of 130 message-filled and wits-saturated poems that convey deep messages about every relatable facet of life from faith, to love, to romance, to family, to friendship, to success, to hope, to dejection and the way out and finally, to eternity and the life after. It is worthy of being called "The Bible of poetry."

Dearest Darling Wife...Just a Few Lines to Let You Know I Am Okay - Louise Weible 2004-07-16

Louise Weible is married to her husband, Larry. They have three children, Larry Jr., Timothy Wade, and Laura Louise. While a stay-at-home mother, when the children were young, she took a writing course with only a glimmer of where it might lead to. Later as a real estate agent, she found good fun in writing her own advertisements for the newspaper ads. Upon joining the Writers Group, a dormant dream began to emerge. With the group's encouragement she began to write a column for a local newspaper. And finally, at long last, she began a long dreamed of project that told of her mother and father's meeting, courtship and marriage during W.W.II; most of which is portrayed through these letters from 1941 until 1945. It is written from Dad's letters that he sent home and which Mom stored away with great care. It is a story of ordinary people with human frailties and strengths and some humor; longing and striving for what they believe will be an extraordinary life together when the war is over. She hopes you enjoy the reading of these letters as much as she did when she recorded them for her widowed mother's re-enjoyment but whose eyesight was failing. Her mother gave Louise the letters, knowing how much she had always treasured them and would keep them safe and intact. She transcribed these letters in this book with her mother's permission and blessing; as long as it was done honorably. She never once, upon reading these letters, read one that was not honorable. They depict the man, as he was a loving, kind and gentle man who made promises. He kept those promises. He was our hero. He still is.

The way we think and feel is different and as a poet writer. I have my own different view of the world, life, people, and what goes on around me. There are certain things that people wouldn't want to talk about but when they read some of the poem in here, they will actually feel the connection. It all depends on the reader's interpretation of the poem and the image they have sorted in their minds, while reading the poem.
