The Clothes Make the Girl (Look Fat)? - Brittany Gibbons
2017-12-26

A sartorial follow-up to her hilarious memoir in stories, Fat Girl Walking, internet personality Brittany Gibbons once again deep dives into the world of the plus size woman, this time chronicling her love/hate (but mostly hate) relationship with what fashion. From Pinterest boards and Instagram posts to shop windows and ad campaigns, fashion is everywhere. We shop and dress for practical reasons like job interviews or to make a good impression at the board meeting. We shop and dress for more adventurous reasons—for dates, to woo a lover, to catch someone's eye. Clothes are armor for women, and we wrap a lot of meaning in what we choose to wear. As plus-size spokesmodel and blogger Brittany Gibbons knows, what we choose to wear is especially important, and especially emotional, for curvy women.

This isn't only because curvy women feel underrepresented and underserved by the fashion world. For the curvy woman who struggles with feelings of self-worth and a lack of confidence the feeling of "why bother" can come crashing in. You can't help but think "wouldn't leggings and a slouchy sweater just be easier?" Especially when we, like every other woman on the planet, are facing greater, real-life obstacles like raising kids, attending college, keeping your marriage together, paying bills, and a myriad of other daily struggles. Everyone has those days where they hate their body, they hate their clothes, but self-confidence and strength can come from a great outfit. Brittany is determined to help women, curvy and otherwise, embrace fashion and all the bumps and lumps that come with it. An "overdue love letter" to her body, Brittany delves into the hilarity and the humility of her quest to find her own personal style—to break out of a rut of maternity underwear and men's

Also included are designs for jumpers, playclothes, pajamas and robes.

Target Underwear and a Vera

Wang Gown - Adena Halpern

2007-05-31

The story of a young woman's life, one outfit at a time.

Tucked inside the fibers and buttons and pockets of the clothing in our closets are the stories of our lives, the lessons we've learned, the people we've loved. Like so many of us, Adena Halpern has used clothes to conform, to seduce, to console, to show off, and to hide. Her ability to relate fashion to her inner life--in a way that goes beyond the clothes--has endeared her to many readers, one of whom called her, "the real-life Carrie Bradshaw." But Fashionista, she's not. Adena is: every teenage girl who had to have what all the other girls had, whether it looked good on her or not; the college coed who swooned for the boy in the leather jacket; the heartbroken girl who chose a rebound dress over a rebound man; the best friend who borrows clothes and never gives them back; the woman who is 45 minutes late to work because she has nothing to wear. She is a lover of clothes and shopping whose passionate memories are always tied not only to the clothes that she wore, but what everyone else was wearing, too. This is the affectionate and funny story of Adena's life, an unconventional love story that readers will want to share.

Clotheshorse or otherwise, this book is for anyone who keeps an old piece of clothing in the back of their closet, wishing that one day those clothes would get up and start talking about the wonderful times you once shared together.

Winning my Best Friend's Girl - Piper Rayne 2020-07-21

NOW A USA TODAY

BESTSELLER Imagine lying in a hospital bed and the doctor who pulls the curtain back to treat you is the one who got away. Even if you never really had her in the first place. She's not only your high school crush, she's the ex-girlfriend of your ex-best friend. The one girl you've always wanted.

Here's a step-by-step list to finally win her over... Key to win #1: Try not to take offense that she snuck back into town without telling you—six months ago. Key to win #2: Rekindle the friendship to ease the awkwardness. But... DO NOT enter the friend zone. Key to win #3: Ignore the fact that she went speed dating the night before. Take it as good a sign—maybe she's looking for a relationship. Key to win #4: Attempt to keep the two of you out of the town gossip blog and away from your large family. Make sure you don't let this last one throw you off your mission. Key to win #5: Don't get deterred when you find out the past is about to repeat itself. Because the man she met at the speed dating night is your best buddy from work. Just remember, you sat back and let her slip away once, you won't do it a second time.

Failure is not an option. Author Note: This book does NOT contain cheating.

Protective Clothing for Women and Girl Workers Employed in the Factories and Workshops (Classic Reprint) - Great Britain Home Office 2018-03-27

Excerpt from Protective Clothing for Women and Girl Workers Employed in the Factories and Workshops The accompanying statement of processes in which there is special need of protective clothing for the women and girl workers, and of the most suitable types of protective clothing, has been compiled from information supplied by the, Factory Inspectors. The statement does not include processes in trades certified as dangerous under the Factory Act where protective clothing is already required by Regulations but it includes the chief manufacturing processes in which, though not brought under Regulations, protective clothing was been found to be required for safeguarding the worker against accident or injury to health, or for securing her comfort and convenience in her work, or for protecting her ordinary clothing against damage caused by the materials, machinery, etc., used in the process on which she is employed, or resulting from the conditions under which the work has to be done. Under Section 7 of the Police, Factories, etc. (miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1916, the Home Office is empowered to require the provision of such clothing in any cases where it appears to be necessary for securing the welfare of the workers. In the great majority of cases the need for protective clothing arises from one or other of the following causes Dusty or dirty processes.

Working about machinery, climbing ladders, etc. Use of acids or caustic liquids. Wet processes. Excessive heat. Exposure to weather. The statement is divided into two parts. Part I describes the different types of protective clothing recommended. These are illustrated in the photographs. Part II specifies in respect of each process the nature of the risk to be guarded against and (by reference to the distinguishing letters prefixed to the types in Part I) the particular type of clothing recommended. In a few cases protection of a special kind is required; this is described specially in each case. About the Publisher
