Maria Georgianne Marfori has loved Noah Elizalde more than anyone in this world. At ganoon din ang halos lahat ng mga babaeng kakilala niya—he's that hot and gorgeous. Kaya naman ay maaga niyang natutunang magmahal nang walang takot at pag-aalinlangan. Ngunit kailanman ay hindi niya naisip na darating ang araw na mapapagod at susuko siya. Never. She will end up with Noah no matter what happens. But is it really right to love him that much at such a young age? Binigyan tayo ng Panginoon ng puso at utak: puso para maramdaman ang sentimiento, at utak para mapag-isipan kung dapat bang tanggapin ang sentimiento. We have to decide which one to use. But do we always have the chance to choose? Paano kung ipaglaban mo man ang nararamdaman ng iyong puso pero wala ka pa rin namang halaga sa taong mahal mo? How will you fight for your heart when you know from the start that you will lose? That you are worthless? Why do we want this: to love someone who does not love us? To leave those who want to stay? To push away those who want to stay close? To treasure what is worthless?

Śrīmad Bhāgavata and Medieval Hindi Poets - Sada Nand Madan 1998*Children of Immigration - Carola Suárez-Orozco 2009-06-30

Now in the midst of the largest wave of immigration in history, America, mythical land of immigrants, is once again contemplating a future in which new arrivals will play a crucial role in reworking the fabric of the nation. At the center of this prospect are the children of immigrants, who make up one fifth of America's youth. This book, written by the codirectors of the largest ongoing longitudinal study of immigrant children and their families, offers a clear, broad, interdisciplinary view of who these children are and what their future might hold. For immigrant children, the authors write, it is the best of times and the worst. These children are more likely than any previous generation of immigrants to end up in Ivy League universities-- or unschooled, on parole, or in prison. Most arrive as motivated students, respectful of authority and quick to learn English. Yet, at the same time, many face huge obstacles to success, such as poverty, prejudice, the trauma of immigration itself, and exposure to the materialistic, hedonistic world of their native-born peers. The authors vividly describe how forces within and outside the family shape these children's developing sense of identity and their ambivalent relationship with their adopted country. Their book demonstrates how "Americanization," long an immigrant ideal, has, in a nation so diverse and full of contradictions, become ever harder to define, let alone achieve.

At siya ang naging dahilan ng paghihiwalay ng dalawa. Nang mahuli ni Crystal na may kahalikang iba ang minamahal niya, parang dinurog durog ang puso niya. At 'yon ang dahilan ng aksidenteng hindi inaasahan ng lahat. Sumabog ang kotseng minamaneho nito ng malaglag sa bangin at idineklarang patay. Namatay nga ba siya?

The Girl from Sighet - Hindi Rothbart 2009
The Girl from Sighet a memoir In 1944, Hindi Friedman's idyllic childhood in the Transylvanian Carpathian Mountains abruptly ended when German troops invaded her beloved hometown of Sighet. This memoir, written in the style of a novel, chronicles Hindi and her family's confinement in the town's ghetto, their transport in a suffocating cattlecar to Auschwitz, and the subsequent heroic struggle to survive the inhumane conditions of the concentration camp. After Russian soldiers liberated Hindi and her sister from a labor camp in the Czech Republic, the young girls immediately faced a harsh new reality. Their liberators were now the enemy. Weak and hungry, the girls escape by foot over the Czech mountains to avoid the savagery of the Russian soldiers. Two years after the war ended, Hindi was again on the run. Trapped in communist Romania, she escaped into Austria and eventually to her new home in America. This epic memoir spans seventy years, transporting the reader from shtetl life through war-torn Europe to the American suburbs of the fifties.

and on to the present, allowing us to partake in a remarkable journey from death and despair to hope and rebirth.
