Key Debates in the Translation of Advertising Material - Beverly Adab 2016-04-01

Much has been written about the marketing aspects of promotional material in general, and several scholars (particularly in linguistics) have addressed questions relating to the structure and function of advertisements, focusing on images, rhetorical structure, semiotic functions, discourse features and audio-visual media, amongst other aspects of the genre. Not much, on the other hand, has been written within translation studies about the complexities involved in the transfer of an advertising message. Contributors to this volume explore various interdependent aspects of the interlingual and intercultural transfer of an advertising message. They emphasize features of culture specificity, of multi-medial semiotic interaction, of values and stereotypes, and most importantly, they recommend strategies and approaches to assist translators. Topics covered include a critique of the Western-based approach to advertising in the context of the Far East; different perceptions of the concept of cleanliness in advertising texts in Italy, Russia and the UK; the Walls Cornetto strategy of internationalization of product appeal, followed by localization; the role of the translator in recreating appeal in different lingua-cultural contexts; what constitutes 'Italianness' in advertisements for British consumers; and strategies for repackaging France as a tourist destination.

The Book of Jewish Women's Tales - 1994

Whenever anyone tells a tale, that tale sends a message to the listener. When a Jewish storyteller tells a tale in a Jewish setting, that tale sends a Jewish message. And when a Jewish woman tells a tale to other Jewish women, she sends a Jewish woman's message: how to act as a Jewish woman - toward her community, toward other people, and toward God. This book is a collection of such women's tales and an analysis of their messages. The Book of Jewish Women's Tales consists of seventy-five stories, told and transmitted within the last two generations by Jewish women from around the world - from places as diverse as Ethiopia, India, Azerbaijan, Yemen, Greece, Eastern Europe, Israel, and the United States. The majority of the stories were culled from the Israel Folktale

Archives, a repository of almost 19,000 tales; others Barbara Rush collected personally. Each story begins with an introduction in which Rush identifies its origin, its theme and meaning, and any other pertinent information about the tale, such as the biblical or talmudic passages to which it relates. The volume also includes sources to encourage further study of Jewish women's tales. The book is divided into sections, including life-cycle events such as birth, marriage, motherhood, aging, and death; holidays in the yearly cycle and Shabbat; and sections dealing with women in Israel and the strength of women. Some of the tales read like traditional fairy tales filled with supernatural beings, fairy godmothers, and royalty; others are romantic tales; still others deal with rites of passage and conflicts between men and women or among women. The stories have two things in common: in all of them the women emerge as strong, victorious, and clever, and all of the stories, while they have universal appeal to women, contain distinctly Jewish messages. The heroine does not merely win her beloved; their children carry on the teachings of the Torah. Some of the tales are based on biblical stories in which the faith of pious women is rewarded by God; others are local legends that tell of actual events in Jewish history. The Book of Jewish Women's Tales is a remarkable collection. As an anthology, it will delight and entertain, but as a valuable sourcebook, it will educate and inform. Through her extensive research, Barbara Rush has enabled us to see from a woman's perspective, not only the common elements of Jewish women from all corners of the world, but also what they share with women from all cultures and religions.

The Desires of a Woman's Heart - Beverly LaHaye 1994-09

Holy Spirit. In my ten-day devotional, A Heart Aflame: Ten Days to Ignition, I am believing that the Holy Spirit will do just that; it is my sincere hope that upon reading this book, you will walk away not only inspired and equipped but ignited. Day One: You will learn that God is no respecter of persons and anyone can move in the power of the Holy Spirit. Day Two: You will be inspired by the Holy Spirit to cultivate a consistency in your relationship with God and fulfill your purpose. Day Three: You will learn how to tap into God's presence and live hooked up to the power source. Day Four: You will get a revelation of the fire of God and how God ignites every believer. Day Five: You will learn to destroy the works of the devil using the name of Jesus. Day Six: You will learn how to flow in the power of the Holy Spirit. Day Seven: You will learn how to hear the voice of God. Day Eight: You will learn how to walk in authority. Day Nine: You will learn the nature of faith. Day Ten: You will learn what the Bible says about the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Your Brother in the Lord, John W. Williams Jr If I say, "I won't mention him or speak any longer in his name," His message becomes a fire burning in my heart, shut up in my bones. I become tired of holding it in, and I cannot prevail (Jeremiah 20:9 HCSB).

How to Win a Man's Heart - Tatiana Busan 2023-02-06

Have you ever heard one of these phrases? • "I only need to clarify the idea...", • "I am not ready for a long term relationship", • "I'm too busy with my career", • "The problem is not in you, but in myself". In reality the problem hides in ourselves, deeper than we can imagine. All men that affirm "problem is not about you, but about me" are lying! If he doesn't want to involve, if he doesn't believe at all in marriage values, be aware that sooner or later he will get married, but not with you. Because in reality he doesn't tell he doesn't want to involve: he tells that he doesn't want to develop his relationship with you! Getting out with a man is not similar to being together, especially when the relationship is at initial stage. Men adore this period in which they can lie to themselves and pretend to get involved with you. He doesn't want to involve and declares that he is responsible for your feelings. Pay attention to the word "friendship"! It is often used by a man, when he doesn't want to involve. When a man really interests you, it could be painful to discover he is not attracted at all to you. You may feel desperate, but don't lose heart, love needs time! Unrequited love still remains love, it's impossible to eradicate love and any efforts to stop this feeling brings only sufferings. Where was written that you must stop loving someone if love is not reciprocal? Love with all your heart and with every fiber of your being, even when your beloved one cannot be with you. Inside this self-help book you'll discover: • He Doesn't Want to Commit to a Relationship... What You Should Do! • These Are The Habits That Are Ruining Your Relationship • Reasons Men are Scared of Your Desire to Have a Serious Relationship • What To Do When He Doesn't Want A Relationship • What to do When He is Scared of Commitment • How To Get Him To Commit To Only You • How to Rekindle the Spark in Your Relationship • How to Keep a Man's Interest Alive • How To Get Any Guy To Like You - Become A Seductress • Easy Ways to Talk to a Guy over the Phone • How to Win a Man's Heart • Ways to Make a Man Fall in Love with You Instantly • How The Men Fall In Love • How Men Really Know They're in Love • How To Overcome Fear Of Being Rejected In Love • When You Can Make Love Declaration Without Frightening Your Man • Loving A Man... Women in pain populate every congregation. Left to themselves, many will become discouraged and leave the church. But pastors cannot adequately care for the needs of everyone. Beverly White Hislop has written Shepherding a Woman's Heart to challenge pastors to infuse to women in their churches with the same spirit that moves them to care for their flock. This amazing resource provides substantial guidance on how to properly equip healthy women to come forward and nurture hurting women.
