

Love In Between

Life, love and everything in between - Ayra Jamshad

2020-01-10

This book is a collection of poems that speak about a range of things - from life to love to everything in between. The poems explore the essence of human life, the intricacy of human emotion, poetry as an art in itself and what it means to the author. It is the protagonist's journey of understanding herself, of making sense of her hopes, dreams and struggles. Our journeys are unique and the possibilities are endless. As one of the poems says "We're many things at once" and we're all on the path to becoming our own person. The author uses poetry to shed light on the emotional turmoil of growing up, the need to normalize talk about mental health and the revival of empathy. It's okay to not know, it's okay to take your time, it's okay to feel, it's okay to seek help and it's okay to love.

Care To Make Love In That Gross Little Space Between Cars? - The Believer

2012-03-06

The Believer magazine presents a compendium of advice from producers, writers, and actors of The Daily Show, Saturday Night Live, Parks and Recreation, Late Show with David Letterman, The Hangover, and The Colbert Report, along with other musicians, cartoonists, New Yorker writers, and those similarly unqualified to offer guidance. Here Amy Sedaris describes the perfect murder for unwanted hermit crabs—you will need a piece of meat and a brick. Simon Rich explains how to avoid being found dead in your underwear by firemen—buy some long johns. Zach Galifianakis provides insight into how he changed his name without a social security card—he just started calling himself Adam Zapple, and it stuck. Bob Saget finally illuminates what “friends with benefits” really means—a nonsexual relationship wherein your ex makes monetary deposits into your bank account.

Contributors include: Rob Baedeker, Anne Beatts, Elizabeth Beckwith, Jerri Blank, Roz Chast, Louis C.K., Mike Doughty, Dave Eggers, Rich Fulcher, Zach Galifianakis, Dan Guterma, Anthony Jeselnik, Julie Klausner, Lisa Lampanelli, Nick Hornby, Sam Lipsyte, Liam Lynch, Merrill Markoe, Rose McGowan, Misc.

Canadian rock musicians, Laraine Newman, The Pleasure Syndicate, Bob Powers, Simon Rich, Bob Saget, George Saunders, Kristen Schaal, Paul Scheer, Amy Sedaris, Allison Silverman, Paul Simms, Brendon Small, Jerry Stahl, Scott Thompson, Fred Willard, Cintra Wilson, Weird Al Yankovic, and Alan Zweibel

On Love - Youngjin Park 2018

This thesis considers love through the interlacing of psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan and philosopher Alain Badiou. Engaging with the problematic of love as an in-between (metaxú) in Western thought and intervening in the contemporary scholarship around Lacan and Badiou, this thesis examines love in the works of Lacan and Badiou and conceptualizes the consequences that remain implicit and unexplored in the two authors' thoughts on love. Chapter 1 addresses love through mathematics. Noting that mathematics plays a pivotal role in Lacan's and Badiou's approaches to love, I discuss love through the sexuation formulas, numericity, modality, topology, and knot theory, elaborating the concept of amorous void. Chapter 2 addresses love through politics. Noting that politics resides where the interlacing of Lacan and Badiou reaches a peak, I examine the enigmatic knot between love and politics through the contemporary crisis of love, the reinvention of philia, community, and humanity, elaborating the concept of amorous unpower. Chapter 3 addresses love through antiphilosophy and philosophy. Referring to Japanese writer Murakami Haruki's Tony Takitani as a facilitator for the dialogue between antiphilosophy and philosophy, I examine how love straddles both the psychoanalytic symptom and the philosophical truth, the analytic act and the philosophical operation. I conclude this chapter by elaborating the concepts of sinthomatic truth and archiamorous acts. Chapter 4 reads Letter to D by French philosopher André Gorz. Discussing Gorz and Dorine's amorous itinerary from their first encounter to their joint suicide, I address how Gorz and Dorine weave both the Lacanian side and the Badiouian side through their "Bacanian" love. In Conclusion, I revisit love as an in-between in relation to intermediate daemons in Plato's Epinomis, from which are drawn the interlacing of the analyst as a participant of pain and the philosopher as a discerner of truth. Developing the problematic implied in this interlacing, I argue that the subject of love comes between the enigma of love as the loveless that is indiscernible to love and the principle of love as the love that infinitely surpasses itself.

Heartsick - Jessie Stephens

'Thought-provoking, highly original and beautifully nuanced. Jessie Stephens' journalistic skill shines as she weaves together true stories with a narrative as compelling as any novel.' Jane Harper 'Heartbreak does not seem to be a brand of grief we respect. And so we are left in the middle of the ocean, floating in a dinghy with no anchor, while the world waits for us to be okay again.' Claire has returned from London to the dust and familiarity of her childhood home, only to realise something is wrong with her partner Maggie. Patrick is a lonely uni student, until he meets Caitlin - but does she

feel as connected as he does?

Ana is happily married with three children. Then, one night, she falls in love with someone else. Based on three true stories, Heartsick is a compelling narrative nonfiction account of the many lows and occasional surprising highs of heartbreak. Bruising, beautiful, achingly specific but wholeheartedly universal, it reminds us that emotional pain can make us as it breaks us, and that storytelling has the ultimate healing power.

SHORTLISTED FOR THE ABIA GENERAL NON-FICTION BOOK OF THE YEAR 2022

Praise for Heartsick 'A remarkable longform journalism exploration of the human heart and how it breaks. Original, meticulous, marvellous. Stephens has such a handle on heartbreak here that you'd be forgiven for thinking she's had hers broken hundreds of times. But, of course, just once is more than enough for anyone. Dive in, soak up every word, and remember what it felt like to ache with the glorious sick.' -

Trent Dalton 'Full of empathy and grippingly told, this is a book for anyone who has suffered a broken heart. Jessie Stephens perfectly captures the thrill of love, as well as the agony that sometimes follows. You'll care desperately for all these people, in all their damage and hope.' - Richard Glover 'This book is a delight. Stephens has written a compulsive, utterly endearing thing about that most human of struggles: heartache. It is Sally Rooney's Normal People meets Louis Theroux. What Heartsick does for us all, because its core is universal, is reveal the true nature of love in astonishing detail. The precision will grip you. Stephens shows us, too, that we are not alone. And that is a gift.' - Rick Morton 'Unflinching, perceptive and inquisitive - all the things Jessie Stephens does best - Heartsick is a window into another person's soul, with permission to read the inside of their heart. In its pages, Heartsick delivers what every broken-hearted person needs, the ability to see themselves in others who have walked this path before them. With this book, Jessie Stephens has just established herself as a major player in the Australian literary scene. A stunning debut.' - Sally Hepworth 'Heartsick is heartbreak close up - a magnifying glass that shows us the beating muscle of heartache. It reminded me that the closer a writer gets, the more universal the story becomes. I just loved this book. I hope you will too.' - Sophie Hardcastle cheated on my mother every moment he had the chance. He would even stoop as low as to take me and my sister with him on his trysts when we were younger. Cheating was all I grew up with, and I vowed never to live the life my mother did. After finding my fiance and my sister together, I moved from Seattle to Santa Monica to start a new life of independence and to focus on my passion for photography, man-free. -- My name is Luke Matthews. About a year ago, I lost the love of my life, in a tragic car accident. There are no words that can describe how I've felt the past year. My life and all my dreams had died with her in the accident. I exist, and I play my guitar to try and ease the pain. My love was taken away, and I will never get that back.

through muddy caves, sewers, and tunnels. Others seek out the refuge of Nest County, where traditional Chinese herbal medicines can reshape or psychologically transport the self. Each life is circumscribed by buried secrets and transcendent delusions. Can Xue's masterful love stories for the new millennium trace love's many guises—satirical, tragic, transient, lasting, nebulous, and fulfilling—against a kaleidoscopic backdrop drawn from East and West of commerce and industry, fraud and exploitation, sex and romance.

L for Life Love and Lots in Between - Loaiy A. Tageldin
2010-01-01

Many memories fade but there are some that survive the test of time. They are usually simple things... a piece of news, a trip, a special occasion and yet they linger in the mind and influence us without intention. I remember it clearly... I was eight years old when I heard the news... Auntie Amal had cancer. The hardest thing is that cancer can be a slow and silent visitor... it quietly tiptoes into our lives and gets to work. It begins picking away at our hopes and dreams; invading our privacy, silently taking hold of our homes and families and friends. And when cancer finally controls enough it announces its victory, raising its flag triumphantly over our broken bodies and shattered lives. Homes empty, ambitions scattered to the wind, dreams turned to nightmares... that is cancer. Taking the hopes and expectations of our future and turning them to dust... that is cancer
