And it's with horror that I realize the fate of two realms rests on my shoulders after my mother's ultimate sacrifice to trap Rubezahl in Underhill. Rubezahl has returned far sooner than I thought possible. I'm not ready. I can't win this. And not only that... He has something crucial if we are to win. He's taken something I cannot live without. The place of the final battle has been decided, and two armies will meet. Yet forces beyond my understanding must be satisfied first--old magics rise and demand their dues. There is no option but to race and decipher the puzzle to save the man I love, the friends more important to me than my own life, and humans and fae alike. Two realms. Only I can save them. We're screwed. If you can't get enough of Sarah J. Mass, Holly Black, or Jennifer L. Armentrout, you will love this vibrant world where impossible love and an explosive pace will leave you breathless!

Awakened - Kate Oleander 2019-12-10

Marin Grienger was bitter and angry at the world. There was no such thing as a happy ending, but she wanted one. She desperately wanted things to change, but when humans were nothing more than fodder to the ruling regime, there was little hope. She wanted a life of her own: smiles and laughter, peace and kindness, and--most of all, she wanted love. To Marin, the blame rested on the shoulders of the powerful who took the things she desired most from her. She had more reason than most humans to hate the Strygolians. The all-powerful regime was responsible for the deaths of both of her parents, leaving her an orphan in the hands of her abusive uncle. However, in a chance encounter with a couple of Stryx, the terrifying henchmen of the Strygolian Elders, a door was unlocked between her seemingly pointless life and the creatures she despises more than her uncle. What she witnessed should have meant execution, but she was allowed to live. Three years later, the door to that connection was thrust open, and Marin was shoved through, head and heart first. At last, her life was changing, but it was not a path she would have ever chosen on her own. It was a push from the hands of fate that sent her on the journey -- one that will test her to the core of her beliefs about good and evil. Was she ever meant to be happy, and how could she fall in love with a monster? Awakened is the first book of four in the White Ice Series. The series tells a story of redemption and opportunity for change, character friendships forged through trials and trust, and built from the ground up. With the balance between good and evil tipped toward the favor of evil throughout the world, it spills into the lives of the characters and reflects their struggles and temptations. A glimmer of hope, in the form of a mysterious prophecy, bolsters the hearts of the bravest humans. The prophecy speaks of two girls, one of light and one of dark, daughters of kin. It is foretold that they will reconcile the sins committed against the Glace Blanche, ancient protectors of humankind when greedy humans betrayed their allies for the false promises of wealth assured by the Strygolians. The series is meant to be read from beginning to end, and each book ends with a cliffhanger until Book 4, Bitter Redemption when the story concludes.
