Nice Jewish Felon - Michael Eliot Mehler 2006-11

It was at this time that reputed mobster Vincent "Vinny Gorgeous" Basciano walked into my life. Vincent swaggered into EJ's with the subtle grace of a man without a care in the world. He was wearing spotless white sneakers, a light blue tailored running suit, a diamond and gold encrusted watch, and designer glasses. His full head of hair was perfectly cropped. On his arm was a most gorgeous brunette, also elegantly dressed with a body only the gods could partake of. This particular Sunday was even busier than normal at EJ's and the wait was going on forty-five minutes for seating. I noticed Vincent from the moment he slipped a fifty-dollar bill into the manager's hand. The "commoners" would wait, but Vincent wouldn't. I knew where he would be seated as a table was opening in my section on the porch. Strangely, I felt some sort of a connection to Vincent from the moment I saw him. I whisked away the busboy and set the table myself, giving particular care to every detail. I wanted to subtly demonstrate my respect for this man who carried with him such an aura of power. About the Expert Bethany Wilson is a December 2010 graduate from Berea College in Berea, Kentucky. She obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in Child Development. During her entire time in college she was engaged, her and her fiancé Josh decided to give a long distance relationship a go. From the beginning of her college career throughout the completion and still to this day they are together. With nearly three hundred miles between her and Josh they had to get creative in order to keep the relationship alive. When they first began the relationship after Bethany got to college they would talk on the phone for hours each day about a little bit of nothing but that gradually got tiresome. Bethany and Josh had to find new things to keep their relationship interesting. At first they started using webcam communications but that was short lived because the college cut the bandwidth that was allowed to the students making it almost impossible to webcam one another. They tried almost all of the techniques that are mentioned in this book. There were many different things that was brought up by other people trying to make them break up, but that never worked because Bethany and Josh have a bond stronger than words of others. Now that Bethany is out of college, she and Josh is no longer on a long distance relationship status because they are just a few minutes apart and are looking forward to their future and in the process of planning their wedding. Their long distance relationship helped them both mature and develop the ways that they communicate to the point that they both seem as if they are ten years older than they really are in the case of communication strategies. When things would seem dire within the relationship they would sit down and talk it out either on the internet, phone, or text messaging and get past the situation. Progress in Self Psychology, V. 19 - Mark J. Gehrie 2013-05-13

The contributors to Explorations in Self Psychology, volume 19 of the Progress in Self Psychology series, wrestle with two interrelated questions at the nexus of contemporary discussions of technique: How "authentic" and relationally invested should the self psychologically informed analyst be, and what role should self-disclosure play in the treatment process? The responses to these questions embrace the full range of clinical possibilities. Dudley and Walker argue that empathically based interpretation precludes self-disclosure whereas Miller argues in favor of authentic self-expression and against the self psychologist's frustrating attempt to "decenter" from frustration or anger. Consideration of the utility of a consistently empathic stance continues with Weisel-Barth's clinical presentation and the discussions that it elicits about management of her patient's primary destructiveness. Lenoff's critical rereading of Kohut's "Examination of the Relationship Between Mode of Observation and Theory" and Rieveschl & Cowan's "Selfhood and the Dance of Empathy" deepen still further a contemporary perspective on the nature (and advisability) of a consistently empathic stance in the face of interactive and enactive treatment challenges. Other timely self-psychological explorations examine the twinship selfobject experience and homosexuality; self-psychological work with adolescents; and Neville Symington's theory of narcissism. Contributions to applied analysis explore topics as diverse as an exchange of dreams between John Adams and Benjamin Rush; Mann's Death in Venice; the films of Ingmar Bergman; psychotherapy of the elderly; and disabilities in the sensory-motor integration in children. And Volume 19 concludes with Constance Goldberg's candid and enlightening reminiscence of Heinz Kohut, "a very complex man with whom to be in a relationship."

Sexual Addiction: Understanding and Treatment - Paul Becker, MAEd, LPC 2015-02-23

The book Sexual Addiction: Understanding and Treatment introduces graduate-level students to the field of sexual addiction. Graduate schools seek a textbook that specifically addresses the dynamics of sex addiction to complete their counseling education curriculum. Some professors have indicated that there is a dearth of targeted instructional content. This book fills that need. As a compendium of Dr. Carnes' research related to the treatment of sexually addicted men and women, the book will serve as clinical manual for therapists. Therapists are invited to use the recovery program presented as an effective treatment regimen for sex addicts. Internet pornography addicts men and women who have a weakness for sexual stimulation. One estimate is that as much as half of the male population and a third of the female population are addicted to pornography. The need for a relevant clinical tool is real. As such, the book contains thirty-six therapeutic exercises to help sexually addicted men and women, in conjunction with sex addiction therapy, to achieve long-term sexual sobriety.
