Marry Me, Ms. Stranger - Srinithya Srinivasan 2020-12-02

"Meeting someone and marrying them are two vastly different things," I said to him quietly, crossing my arms, "What exactly is your plan?" "I'm planning to get married. To you!" He said, looking straight into my eyes. "That was selective hearing on your part, sir." I said, "I won't marry you." His jaw gritted so hard I thought his teeth might shatter. His voice came out in a growl. "Why are you trying so hard not to like me? It's a pretty good deal." "It's a crappy deal wrapped up in stupidity. I would rather have all my teeth pulled out using pliers without anesthesia than marry a stranger," I replied. "There is no going back, Ms. Iyengar. The sooner you accept it's better for everyone," He snapped back, his voice cutting. "What part of 'no' don't you understand? The 'n' or the 'o'? I don't want to marry you," I shouted. "You will accept. You will say 'Yes' to this marriage." He enunciated each word slowly as if he was biting them off with his teeth. Who is this stranger who wants to marry Janani? Will she say yes or no? Or will she finally take control of her life, or is there something much larger at play here? So many questions jam together in her brain; Janani didn't know which to ask first. But she had to make a decision, quick.

The One Who Restores - Latoya Moore 2014-04-30

I thought I had found an integral piece of my life puzzle when I met Donavon, a man who embodied all that I desired in a husband. He had a "strong" relationship with God, loved God above all else, and he had a well-developed prayer life. I began asking God to tell me if Donavon was the man who He had ordained to be my husband. The way that God answered me changed my life and shook my world in a way that I never could have imagined. A mere month after I told God He had to speak to me about what His plans for my relationship with Donavon were, Donavon was killed in a tragic car accident. With little hope of meeting, dating, and getting married to anyone else I reluctantly tried to move on with my life. Just when I thought my life could never return to any form of normality, God revealed a new plan for my life through a series of serendipitous events that far exceeded even the greatest of my dreams and expectations.

100 Questions You Must Ask Your Spouse To Be - Morolayo Anne Owoputi 2020-06-30

This book serves as a guide on the deep questions you should have answers to or asking your potential partner and yourself before undertaking any plans towards Marriage with him or her or flinging yourself blindly into Marriage with a Stranger. From experience, I have realized that several people go into Marriage without really knowing the person they are getting married to well. This realization dawned on me as a result of the many issues that I have come across through the online community that I convene ('Marriage Clinic'), where couples bring up the various problems they are facing in marriage. The first question one usually asks is, didn't you know all of these about your spouse before you went ahead to marry them? The majority of responses gotten from these couples revealed that many of them married a familiar stranger and knew next to nothing of the real person they had committed to for a lifetime journey. Experience goes to show that many of us probably didn't ask the right questions during the dating and courtship period as many seem to be carried away by the euphoria of falling in love that we forget to search out the most important things about the person. It is to address this blind spot that this book has been written. It is to help you know as a single person what crucial and most important questions you should be asking from the start of the friendship and relationship. You must Learn to discount a person and search them out beyond the physical façade of the beautiful and handsome looks, beyond the cars and houses or an excellent job. These are questions that will help you know the true worth of the man or woman. These are not lovey-dovey questions, but questions deep and severe enough to ward off the false and unserious suitors, leaving you with the serious and true, the ones that will suit, care, and love you.

Finding Your Rib - Raymond Lee Evans 2011-06-01

We live in a society where passions are rider less horses, uncontrolled and uncontrollable, in which there is a desolation of decency, in which love has become a jungle emotion, lust exalted to lordship, sin elevated to sovereignty, Satan adored as a saint, and man magnified above his Maker. Americans have come to dwell in an Alice in Wonderland world of fantasy, of self-delusion. Everything has been turned upside down and inside out in our America. Right is wrong and wrong is right. Good is bad and bad is good. Normal is abnormal, and abnormal is normal, true is false and false is true. We are fast degenerating into a decadent culture obsessed with selfishness and sin, death and destruction.

White Lies - Charles Reade 2017-05-22

Towards the close of the last century the Baron de Beaurepaire lived in the chateau of that name in Brittany. His family was of prodigious antiquity; seven successive barons had already flourished on this spot when a younger son of the house accompanied his neighbor the Duke of Normandy in his descent on England, and was rewarded by a grant of English land, on which he dug a mote and built a chateau, and called it Beaurepaire (the worthy Saxons turned this into Borreper without delay). Since that day more than twenty gentlemen of the same lineage had held in turn the original chateau and lands, and handed them down to their present lord. Thus rooted in his native Brittany, Henri Lionel Marie St. Quentin de Beaurepaire was as fortunate as any man can be pronounced before he dies. He had health, rank, a good income, a fair domain, a goodly house, a loving wife, and two lovely young daughters, all veneration and affection. Two months every year he visited the Faubourg St. Germain and the Court. At both every gentleman and every lacquey knew his name, and his face: his return to Brittany after this short absence was celebrated by a rustic fete.
