Developing Clinicians of Character - Terri S. Watson 2018-04-17

ECPA Top Shelf Book Cover Award Is there more to clinical supervision

than our current theories and methods can provide? Whether we intend them to be or not, our mentoring practices are personally formative for supervisees and supervisors alike. Developing Clinicians of Character grounds our thinking in the historic and contemporary wisdom of virtue ethics and grows out of a love for the practice of clinical supervision. It aims to identify and strengthen supervision's important role for character formation in the classroom, in continuing education for practitioners, and in clinical settings. After an overview of the role of character formation in clinical supervision, Developing Clinicians of Character examines each classical Christian virtue in turn, its corresponding professional ethical aspiration, and how we can use the practices of clinical supervision and spiritual formation together to foster character formation for Christian maturity and Christlikeness. Dr. Terri S. Watson welcomes and equips you to excel in "the helping profession within a helping profession" as you provide clinical supervision for other mental health workers in counseling, psychology, and marriage and family therapy. This book will shape your own character through spiritual disciplines in the classical virtues—and outward in expanding circles of encouragement, formation, and healing. Christian Association for Psychological Studies (CAPS) Books explore how Christianity relates to mental health and behavioral sciences including psychology, counseling, social work, and marriage and family therapy in order to equip Christian clinicians to support the well-being of their clients.

The Power of Together - Jim Putman 2016-06-21

An Invitation to Deeper, More Joyful, and Rewarding Relationships with God and Others None of us is lovable all of the time. People are unreasonable, arguments flare, feelings are hurt. And no one can make us feel worse than those closest to us. It's easy to fall into the trap of closing ourselves off in order to protect ourselves, rather than opening ourselves up for relationship with each other. But think of who Jesus invited into his life and ministry. They weren't always lovable. Yet he modeled perfect love for us and showed how the mark of a spiritually mature believer was always love. In The Power of Together, pastor and author Jim Putman uncovers the core of true discipleship with an in-depth, biblical look at how Jesus always invited people into relationship with himself. He loved them with God's perfect love and, in the process, showed everyone around him that the act of following God is the act of extending and receiving love that endures all things.

The One Thing Necessary - Leonard Doohan 2012

"Martha, Martha, only one thing is necessary." Jesus of Nazareth to his friend Martha of Bethany What is the "one thing" that Jesus thought was so necessary that it trumps every other human need, emotion, desire, idea, and act? So necessary that it is the ultimate prescription for what ails our troubled world? So necessary that we can't live a fulfilled life without it? "All you need is love," the Beatles sang, kind of with tongue in cheek, but author and scholar Leonard Doohan thinks they were literally correct. "The early Christian disciples," he points out, "were overwhelmed by the emphasis on love in Jesus' extraordinary teachings. They were convinced that love is the kernel of the Christian revelation." According to Doohan, Christian love is not some weak, fuzzy attempt to be nice and not rock any boats. God's love is the transformative power of the universe that was revealed in the words and actions of Jesus of Nazareth and is available to those willing to pick up the cross and embrace it. It is the one thing the human race needs to survive and thrive. "When we look at our contemporary world this central message of Christianity has never been more needed-or more forgotten-than it is now," Dr. Doohan argues. He explores philosophy, the Scriptures, theology, spirituality, and the lived experience of the faithful to explain what love is, how we find it in our lives, and how it can change the world. Each of the seven chapters begins with several quotes and focus points and ends with provocative questions for individual reflection or group discussion. Topics include: Finding Meaning in God's Love Jesus' Life of Love for Humanity Jesus' Teachings on Love The Inner Life of God Is a Life of Love A World Crying for Love Our Vocation to Love Sharing Love in Community Book jacket.

The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God - Paul Joseph Greene 2017-08-01

In The End of Divine Truthiness, Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love. With urgent resolve, Greene answers Martin Luther King, Jr.'s pointed challenge to overcome "reckless and abusive . . . power without love," and "sentimental and anemic . . . love without power." Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty. Wielding Stephen Colbert's word "truthiness" as a scalpel, Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love. Supported by three world religions--Buddhism, Christianity, and Taoism--he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love. To reunify love and power here in the world, as King challenges, it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities. Greene's call for "the end of divine truthiness" heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love.

The Power of One More - Charles Morris 2022-12-06

Jesus told His disciples "wait in Jerusalem until you are given power to go with the message of the Gospel" (Acts 1:7-8). In Acts 2, we read of the mighty Holy Spirit being poured out on the 120 disciples waiting in the upper room and the overflow into the streets of Jerusalem. Three thousand men were added to the Lord's church that day. We do not know how many over the three thousand may have been women and children. Acts 8 tells of the multitude of Samaritans who believed the word preached by Philip the Evangelist and confirmed by miracles he performed. When the disciples heard that Samaria had received the Word, they sent Peter and John who laid hands on the Samaritan believers and they too received the promised Holy Spirit. This book is dedicated for the purpose of helping God's people develop a closer walk with God's Spirit. To learn how to be led by the Spirit, to recognize His promptings, and to be used in His power to bear witness of God's great love revealed in the Lord Jesus Christ. When I completed this devotional book, I found that the Lord had given three powerful helps which I call the (Three I's): Inspirational, Informational, and Instructional. All three are necessary for developing a healthy balanced walk in the Spirit of God. All of us need to be inspired in order to live out the relationship God has given us because of Christ' sacrifice and the coming of His promised Holy Spirit. The Scriptures inspire us to persevere as others who have gone before. The Spirit and the Word are the dynamic duo of our faith. Inspiration is not enough. We must also have (information) in order to know how to apply the inspiration received. Learning of God's purpose, plans, and how others lived a "Spirit filled life" is extremely important. Knowing all that is available to the believer is a must in fulfilling God's plan for one's life. We must be (instructed). The Word of God, the Bible, is our instruction book. It is the manual to know how to live out the will of God. It reveals that you and I cannot live out His will without His divine power working through us. It shows us that we need to be filled with the Holy Spirit daily. Our body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. His dwelling place in the earth is in each believer to work His divine plan and purpose. He is the one building the Lord's church. He is the one sent to administrate the Lord's Kingdom and His will on earth as it is in Heaven. "You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light" (1 Peter 2:9). Be blessed as you daily read His Words of Life!

Why Are So Many Relationships Failing? - Billy Burnette 2010-11-30

Most all our relationships go something like this. Even though you can see something good in the other person, you only get glimpses of the good. It is like being in a jail cell next to each other; reaching through the bars to hold hands maybe even steal a kiss, but you cannot embrace that good person. Some go so far as to have sex, but not really embrace, like most married couples are doing today. Most of us have taken that risk, taken the chance on a relationship with that special someone. However, too often one or the other gets hurt, feels frustrated, and walks away without trying to understand why this is happening. It hurts so bad it feels like your insides are being torn out of your body. This is not a physical pain, but the spiritual and emotional separation that hurts physically. Somewhere through the pain we make up our minds consciously or subconsciously that no one will ever hurt us like that again. Jesus said to confess our sins to one another so that we may be healed. We usually try to bury our pain and think we have forgiven our offenders. Jesus' way is to deal directly with the pain. Rose Kennedy was a smart woman she said, "It has been said 'time heals all wounds' I do not agree. The wounds remain. In time the mind (protecting it's sanity), covers them with scar tissue and the pain lessons, but is never gone." Jesus did not come to tell us how to live with our pain, He came to heal us of the pain.

The Power of One-on-One - Jim Stump 2014-03-04

For the past forty years, Jim Stump could be found sitting in a café on the Stanford University campus chatting with some of the most talented athletes in the world, walking with them, getting to know them, sharing his life with them, and loving them. He understands that the best way to have an eternal impact on the world is to develop deep and meaningful relationships with a handful of people. When Jesus walked the earth, he focused his energies not on filling stadiums but on twelve handpicked disciples whom he mentored and equipped to carry out ministries of their own. With engaging personal stories of the famous athletes he has mentored, along with examples from the life of Jesus, Jim Stump shows how to develop rich mentoring relationships with the people in our lives. He answers the question so many of us have--"How can I help to bring my friends to faith?"--by providing simple steps toward developing those relationships, living life authentically, and sharing faith with those we care about. Pastors, youth pastors, small group leaders, and individual believers will find The Power of One-on-One inspirational, encouraging, and practical.

Truth, Life and Power in Christ - Brent Runyan 2013-08-23

This book is designed to help individuals and small groups grow in their identity in Christ and operate in God's supernatural power for the benefit of themselves, others and the kingdom of God. This is for every believer including those who have backslidden. We need to have the power of the full gospel, which includes EVERYTHING purchased on the cross by Jesus to live the healthiest lives that we can and to be of maximum service to God and others. Most Christians are burdened by guilt & shame because of a wrong legalistic of God's word and walk in far less power than they would through a better understanding of grace, everything purchased by Jesus and principles of faith. When we begin to understand who we are as joint heirs with Christ and everything we have been given things change. It isn't about getting more faith but it's about understanding what we have, in spite of our fleshly shortcomings. All it takes to see a miracle is a little bit of faith. If you haven't seen God's miraculous power operating in your life you will as you learn these things. Things which once seemed impossible will come easily and you will see miracles in abundance. CHAPTER ONE PROBLEM & THE SOLUTION The way to a more abundant spiritual life is in renewing our minds with the positive truths of God's word. The problem also involves having a legalistic understanding of God's word. The solution is in understanding God's grace who we are in Christ and everything purchased by His atonement. CHAPTER TWO: OUR CHAPTER TO AGNOSTICS A Christian alternative to the Big Book's approach to bringing agnostics to the knowledge of the truth. CHAPTER THREE: SURRENDER & MOVING FORWARD CHAPTER FOUR: 12 STEPS FROM A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE This gives some very powerful, cutting edge insights and practical advice and information to members of 12 step groups and those who will be ministering there. CHAPTER FIVE BLESSINGS OF "EVERY" BELIEVER The full gospel of Christ consists of so much more than the forgiveness of sins regardless of their current condition. CHAPTER SIX AUTHORITY OF THE BELIEVER Our authority over the enemy & practical advice on using it. CHAPTER SEVEN BEING SPIRITUALLY MINDED Getting closer to God & getting better results by having the right focus CHAPTER EIGHT DEALING WITH TEMPTATION How to beat temptation and how to win even when we make mistakes. CHAPTER NINE USING YOUR FAITH FOR LIFE & MIRACLES Simple instructions on using our God given faith and receiving miracles for ourselves and others. All it takes to see a miracle is a little faith with an absence of doubt and unbelief. We are all meant to operate in miracles. This is for every believer. CHAPTER TEN MINISTRY & RELATIONSHIPS Biblical and Spirit inspired. What to do and what not to do in ministry and relationships. CHAPTER ELEVEN LOVE God's kind of love from the pages of the Bible. Includes the story "Raotis Servant of the Lord, God Speaks through a Dog." CHAPTER TWELVE FOCUS ON THE SOLUTION Our power is in focusing on the solution not the problem. Simple instructions on how to do this. Starting Your Own Meetings: How to hold really powerful Spirit filled small group meetings and the tools to do that. Meeting Topics Scriptures for Meeting Topics or Bible Study

Development Beyond the Secular - Catherine Loy 2017-09-30

The intersection of religion and development has for some decades been considered contentious, with scholars of both disciplines inhibited by the constraints of either the religious or the secular paradigm they primarily inhabit. Development Beyond the Secular aims to provide a new resource for those interested in the study of religions and development (primarily postgraduate and academic), and for those development practitioners wishing to contextualize their discipline within a religious frame. Using the work of Christian Aid as its primary lens, this book examines and critiques the theological underpinnings of development work and questions how Christian values are manifest through day-to-day work in the world of poverty eradication.

The Purpose and Power of Love & Marriage - Myles Munroe 2005-01-28

Probably no other dimension of human experience has been pondered, discussed, debated, analyzed, and dreamed about more than the nature of true love. Love is everywhere—in songs and in books, on televisions and on movie screens.
