Deeper Than the Ocean - Art Wedmore 2011-10-18 Wealth, status, success, travel, women...Alcohol, deceit, addiction, betrayal, suicide...Art Wedmore lived the good life. Or did he? A successful businessman, Motivational Speaker and Trainer, educated in every respect, Art had what every person desires. Retired at a young age, Art traveled the world indulging in premier champagnes, wines, beers and beautiful women. Little did he know he was fueling a demon that became so powerful it literally drove him to the edge of a bridge convincing him suicide was the only answer. "Self Inflicted Death Sentence" is a raw, moving, heart-piercing journey through the pit of addiction to the freedom of recovery. This poetic masterpiece is a true story that will provoke the deepest of thoughts, ignite the desire for change and stir the inner soul. Love and Money, Sex and Death - McKenzie Wark 2023-09-26

A transgender woman reflects on her late transition and coming out, trans politics and culture, motherhood and memory, in this provocative epistolary memoir for readers of Olivia Laing's Everybody A breathtaking memoir of transition, history, art, and memory After a successful career, a twenty-year marriage, and two kids, McKenzie Wark has an acute midlife crisis: coming out as a trans woman. Changing both social role and bodily form recasts her relation to the world. Transition changes what, and how, she remembers. She makes fresh sense of her past and of history by writing to key figures in her life about the big themes that haunt us all—love and money, sex and death. In letters to her childhood self, her mother, sister, and past lovers, she writes a backstory that enables her to live in the present. The letters expand to address trans sisters lost and found, as well as Cybele, ancient goddess of trans women. She engages with the political, the aesthetic, and the numinous dimensions of trans life and how they refract her sense of who she is, who she has been, who she can still become. She confronts difficult memories that connect her mother's early death to her compulsion to write, her communist convictions, her coming to New York, the bittersweet reality of her late transition, and the joy to be found in Brooklyn's trans and raver communities.

Emotion in Motion - Mike

Robinson 2016-05-06

What happens when tourists scream with fear, shout with anger and frustration, weep with joy and delight, or even faint in the face of revealed beauty? How can certain sites affect some tourists so deeply that they require hospitalisation and psychiatric treatment? What are the inner contours of tourist experience and how does it relate to specific emotional cultures? What are the consequences of the emotional cultures of tourists upon destinations? How are differences in emotional culture mobilized and played out in the transnational contact zones of international tourism? While many books have engaged with the structural frames of tourist practice and experience, this is the first to deal with the emotional dimensions of tourism, travel and contact and the ways in which they can transform tourists, destinations and travel cultures through emotional engagements. The book brings together an international array of scholars from anthropology, psychiatry, history, cultural geography and critical tourism studies to explore how the movement to, and through, the realms of exotic people, wild natures, subliminal art, spirit worlds, metropolitan cities and sexualised 'others' variably provoke emotions, peak experiences, travel syndromes and inner dialogues. The authors show how tourism challenges us to engage with concepts of self, other, time, nature, sex, the body and death. Through a set of ethnographic and historic cases, they demonstrate that such engagements usually have little to do with the actual destination but rather, are deeply anchored in personal memories, repressed fears and desires, and the collective imaginaries of our societies.

Sex & Death - Sarah Hall
2016-08-30

Sex and death are two of the most powerful, exhilarating and terrifying forces that define and shape the human experience. In this provocative and haunting collection of short stories edited by two masters of the form, some of today's most compelling writers from around the globe - including Kevin Barry, Yiyun Li, Ben Marcus, Jon McGregor, Taiye Selasi and Ali Smith - explore these challenging themes with honesty, empathy and psychological acuity, in stories that are utterly dazzling.

Sex & Violence, Death & Silence - Gordon Burn
2019-07-04

'The Pop artists were among the first to understand the desire of consumers to change their lives through the purchase of clean, manufactured commodities. YBA, on the other hand, was more interested in the dirt that accrues beneath the laminate surface of shiny things. Their special perception was that cheap language and cheap materials didn't have to equal cheap thinking. The trick was to tell it in a jaunty, unportentious, off-hand, unliterary - anti-literary - way. And then there were the drugs.' Spanning nearly 35 years, Sex & Violence, Death & Silence is a collection of the best of Gordon Burn's writing on art. Focusing on two principle generations - the Royal College pop art of Hockney and his contemporaries, and the YBA sensations of the 1990s - it explores how these artists rose to prominence with their friends and contemporaries, and what happened next. Burn's work is fast becoming a kind of chronicle. Its factuality always connects with the broader poetic rhythms of cultural life. Displaying all his customary insight and empathy, his writing adds up to much more than a collection of pieces on art: superbly evocative and engaging, it offers a pathway through two of the most important and vibrant periods in recent art history, and is another compelling and ruminative look at our culture.

Cheese Sex Death - Erika Kubick 2021-10-26

From lauded cheesemonger and creator of the popular blog Cheese Sex Death, a bible for everything you need to know about cheese For many people, the world of artisan cheese is an intriguing but intimidating place. There are so many strange smells, unusual textures, exotic names, and rules for serving. Where should a neophyte begin? From evangelist cheesemonger Erika Kubick, this comprehensive book guides readers to become confident connoisseurs and worshippers of Cheesus. A preacher of the curd word, Kubick provides the Ten Commandments of Cheese, which breaks down this complex world into simplified bites. A welcoming sanctuary devoted to making cheese a daily part of life and gatherings, this book explores the many different styles of cheese by type, profiling commonly found and affordable wedges as well as the more rare and refined of rinds. Kubick offers divine recipes that cover everything from everyday crowd pleasers (think mac and cheese and baked brie) to festive feasts fit for holidays and gatherings. This cheese devotee outlines the perfect cheese plate formula and offers inventive yet easy-to-execute beverage pairings, including wine, beer, spirits, and non-alcoholic drinks. These heavenly spreads and recipes wring maximum indulgence out of minimal effort and expense.

WINE SEX and SUICIDE My Near Death Divorce - Patty

Blue Hayes 2015-06-20

"I've heard divorce is like a death, but this was different, this was my death." If you've ever felt abandoned by love and disconnected from your true self, Patty's journey will leave you feeling you are not alone. Her story reveals the dangerous aftershocks of losing her identity and purpose in life. Wine, Sex and Suicide - My Near Death Divorce is a raw look into Patty's dark days and manic nights after the abrupt end of her marriage. By day she volunteered in kitchens and shelters but by night she numbered her pain with wine and sexual validation from strangers to soften the blow of her husband's betrayal. The pain nearly broke her. Patty's healing path began with a Life Coaching class. There, she started her journey of self-discovery. She began to see the light and promise of the life she knew in her heart was possible. She shares her vulnerable story so that others will not feel alone in the darkest night of their soul.

Sex, Death and Witchcraft - Douglas Ezzy 2014-05-22

Faunalia is a controversial Pagan festival with a reputation for being wild and emotionally intense. It lasts five days, 80 people attend, and the two main rituals run most of the night. In the tantalisingly erotic Baphomet rite, participants encounter a hermaphroditic deity, enter a state of trance and dance naked around a bonfire. In the Underworld rite participants role play their own death, confronting grief and suffering. These rituals are understood as "shadow work" - a Jungian term that refers to practices that creatively engage repressed or hidden aspects of the self. Sex, Death and Witchcraft is a powerful application of relational theory to the study of religion and contemporary culture. It analyses Faunalia's rituals in terms of recent innovations in the sociology of religion and religious studies that focus on relational etiquette, lived religion, embodiment and performance. The sensuous and emotionally intense ritual performances at Faunalia transform both moral orientations and self-understandings. Participants develop an ethical practice that is individualistic, but also relational, and aesthetically mediated. Extensive extracts from interviews describe the rituals in participants' own words. The book combines rich and evocative description of the rituals with careful analysis of the social processes that shape people's experiences at this controversial Pagan festival.

Down and Out in Paradise -
Luke Williams 2019-09-02

Luke Williams flies to Kuala Lumpur coming down off crystal meth without plans or much cash. He is in Asia for three years. He spends time working as a prostitute in Pattaya, eats snake heart in Vietnam, consults an American medium in Ubud, and explores the eye-popping red light scenes in Jakarta and the Philippines. Along the way, he encounters other Westerners who go to Asia for the things they can't find at home - riches, wives, ladyboys, cheap living and even cheaper drugs, cults, spices, mountains, tropical beaches, beach gigolos, 'self-esteem' necklaces, and ascended masters. Luke fully immerses himself in every environment and encounter, going far beyond reportage, while aspects of his own history - his dreams, disappointments, urges, and his inherited struggle with mental illness - begin to catch up with him. He becomes addicted to Valium, is haunted by the past, and ends up in jail. Ultimately, Luke is confronted by what is and what was, and

Speaking in Tongues - Basil

Eliades 2017-05-04

Basil Eliades may have travelled this world, but he has seen other worlds within it.

Worlds of profound love, of incredible cities, inhabited by shamans, gods, where physics becomes elastic, where time travels uphill and humans are re-formed. You will want to go where this man has been. 'I enjoyed this so much - this man writes beautifully.' -

Phillip Adams 'Literary, beautifully written, meticulously plotted and inventively surprising.' - Kerry Greenwood 'A little frightening, sometimes immensely funny, and consistently beautiful writing; these wonderful, sensual tales of love, union, desire and transformation throw open the notion of travel and what it means to come alive in a strange landscape.' -

Life, Sex and Death - Michael Sinason 2005-07-25

A distinguished and revered elder of the British Psycho-Analytical Society, Dr William Gillespie is one of the few British psychoanalysts who began training in the Vienna of the early 1930s. Later he became well known in England for his pioneering studies of sexual perversion, and for his views on female sexuality, regression in old people facing death, and on instinct theory. William Gillespie is celebrated not only for his scientific contributions but also for his administrative skill, integrity and tact in managing the International Psycho-Analytical Association and the British Psycho-Analytical Society, where he was trusted and respected by both Melanie Klein and Anna Freud. In a biographical introduction the editor, Dr Michael Sinason, looks back on the productive 90 years of Gillespie's life, writing movingly of his early life in China and Scotland and showing his development as a psychoanalytic thinker, organizer and administrator, husband and father. Dr Charles Socarides, an American psychoanalyst eminent in the

Sex, Death and God in L.A. -

David Reid 1994-04-25

David Reid has gathered together the novelists, journalists, and cultural critics who could best address the myths, define the truths, and interpret the media images of the second largest city in the U.S. They report on the new Latino and Asian populations of South Central and the East Side and the old establishment of the West side; Downtown with its heavily mortgaged office towers held by Canadian and Japanese landlords; shuttered factories and thriving sweatshops; architecture from Irving Gill to Frank O. Gehry; messiahs from Krishnamurti to L. Ron Hubbard; rituals of power in Movieland and yoga and seduction in Beverly Hills. Ranging from acute political commentary to evocative literary impressions, this is a collection that will engage not only those who live in southern California but all those curious about this megalopolis in the desert.

Sex, Death and Other Inspiring

Stories - Rose Rouse

2023-11-08

Rose Rouse, a journalist, and Suzanne Noble, a serial entrepreneur- created Advantages of Age out of a conversation in a hot tub in 2016. 'We didn't like how we were being depicted in the media as we got older.' Advantages of Age is a social enterprise designed to passionately challenge the prevailing negative stereotypes around ageing. No, we're not all grandparents, some of us are over 50, single and childless. We don't wish to be defined by the reductive headlines we see around us. We are writers, filmmakers, singers, press officers, death doulas, psychotherapists and so much more. We are not all retired. We surf, play tennis, lift weights. We have sex, we don't have sex. We have partners, we don't have partners. We're an eclectic bunch. In this collection of essays gathered from seven years of commissioning, AoAers share their thoughts on life, love, sex, death, adventures on their terms, lockdown and everything in between. 'We hope we're doing our bit to re-define and re-frame what getting old means.'

Sex, Death, and Money - Michele De Luce 2023-02-08

Take it as wise words from a widow. Michele De Luce turns her life experience into a guide for all women in her breakout memoir titled "Love, Sex, Death and Money: How I survived the unthinkable and learned to thrive." After falling in love and then losing her husband in a tragic accident, Michele found herself in survival mode. How does one grieve? Get back into dating? Pick a worthy spouse? Support yourself and your family on a smaller income? Michele navigates these challenges and lays bare the good, the bad and the ugly when it comes to relationship and financial advice. No formal education can quite prepare you for the life lessons learned here.

War of Wishes - Liby Doh 2015-11-23

Traveling the world was Juliet Thompson's lifelong wish. At twenty-one, she'd outgrown her hometown of Appleseed, a tired seaside village echoing with the memories of her dead father. Her only regret about leaving the American east coast town, was leaving behind her best friend Marcus. Her closeness with him was a safe-ground from the dreaded, unwanted world of romance. Leaving him would mean losing that safe-ground, but this was something she had to do on her own. Almost ready to embark on her adventure, Juliet's life and the lives of those around her are suddenly thrust into turmoil by a journalist visiting the town to do a promotional article. Matt Somers exudes confidence, wealth, and an abundance of sexual heat. It covers what he hides beneath - secrets, loneliness, and a grand plan to win the tough tomboy over. However, he underestimates his target and love lines become hopelessly tangled. For all those affected, there are difficult life lessons to be learned. Denying love can be can be toxic. Wishing for love it is not always enough. Most of all, deceiving people to find love can start a war nobody saw coming. Matt burrows beneath Juliet's skin because he has secretly profiled her for months, hoping to get her to fall in love with him, thus destroying the platonic cocoon she has around herself and Marcus. When Matt's deception is revealed lives are destroyed. This leads to the disappearance of his Down syndrome brother, a boy whom he loves more than life itself. Will the search for Nicholas lead to tragedy, or will it give Matt his happy ending with Juliet, leaving Marcus to battle a relationship with Juliet's saintly, yet scheming sister? Certainly not the woman Marcus pictured himself growing old with. If only everyone knew what Matt Somers was really hiding - a secret more than ten years old. A death that still haunts his every waking moment, one he just wishes had never happened.

The Traveler and the Gate Checkers - Ted Lerner 2003

For most people, life comes down to a daily chore of pile management. But for a traveler like Ted Lerner, life often revolves around dealing with gate checkers. Gate checkers? Yes, those people given a badge, a stamp and the authority to stop you from getting where you want to go. In this his second book, the American author of the hilarious Philippine adventure, "Hey, Joe," takes to the road in the gate checker capital of the world, Asia. No matter the obstacles, though, Lerner never fails to uncover the juicy stories and one-of-a-kind experiences which can only be found in the world's largest and most populated continent. From the sheer madness, and brilliance, of tortuously crowded India, to the wildly popular and barbaric realm of Japanese professional wrestling, to high class Hong Kong and its notorious, low down landmark, to jaded Thailand and untouched Laos and, finally, revisiting the teeming and seedy heart of Manila, this collection of five original travel tales will bring you decidedly off the beaten path, roaming as few foreigners dare, on journeys as unique as the countries themselves. Part travelogue, part reportage, part outrageously good fun, with everything from sex to death and all the colorful life in between, Ted Lerner's The Traveler and the Gate Checkers presents a fresh and unusual version of Asia. So open your heart and mind and get ready for the ride. But remember; watch out for those gate checkers!

Dying for It - Mitzi Szereto

Sex and death have always been interrelated. The French describe orgasm as a petite mort (the little death). In Shakespearean England, "to die" also meant to have an orgasm. The Victorians believed a man's climax depleted his physical strength and moral resolve and brought him closer to death. Likewise, women's engagement with the sex act equated a loss of vitality. We are as keen on examining how we procreate as we are on examining our demise: put the two themes together, and you have an explosive, daring literary venture into the taboo. Dying For It: Stories of Sex and Death satisfies by with an exciting and entertaining variety of textual (and, it is hoped, fictional!) expressional on the two most intimate human acts. Contributors include novelists from across the literary spectrum: Lauren Henderson, Vicki Hendricks, Adreana Robbins, Tobsha Learner, Niall Griffiths, Lisette Ashton, and the editor, Mitzi Szereto.
