Nervous to Approach and Talk to Women 1-on-1?

Wipe Your Tears - The Final Solution is Here...

☐Currently, buy the Paperback and get the Kindle eBook included for free. Soon, it won't be free☐ If anyone had told me I'd be amazing and confident in getting women some years ago, I wouldn't believe. I have been through what you're going through. I was scared to approach and talk to the women I liked. After so much frustration, I decided enough was enough-just the same way you have finally decided and ended up here, which is the best place to discover all the things dating gurus will never tell you about approaching beautiful women the right way. In Chapter 1, WWWW, we gave a list of words that'll appear as we learn the craft of approaching a woman. We discussed the only two types of ways to woo her which are ID (Indirect opener) and DO (Direct Opener), and how they're applied with examples. We looked into nervousness. We looked into the Five WWWWs of starting a conversation with a woman which are: Where, When, Why, What, & Which. And we finally added extra examples of DO and ID. In Chapter 2, Operation Rejection, shortened as ORej. We talked on approaching women while having rejection as your most important outcome. If you're not rejected, it's a failure. Being rejected is a success. We looked into 7 different "How Tos" which are: how to woo a seated girl (in any settings); how to woo in class, school, gym centers, gatherings, events and parties; how to woo at the workplace or in an office; how to woo a girl who makes you nervous; how to woo a stubborn girl; how to woo

a girl at the market or mall, and how to woo a girl on the queue (any queue) with some examples for each. In Chapter 3, ON/OFF, we discussed how Push and Pull (PP) works with some examples. We talked on the types of push and pull. We also looked into things you'll have or be that'll make you never to be nervous around girls. We gave an example on building rapport with Sad Anchor and other explanations. In Chapter 4, look inside to see what it's all about. In Chapter 5, Accidental Accusation, we talked on how to accuse a girl to start a conversation. This technique gets a woman hooked with curiosity. We looked into psychological compliments and humor with some examples of how they work. We briefly discussed how to treat a woman and how to book a date. I told some personal stories and gave some examples. We also discussed one of the keys to dating. We talked about flaking and how to handle women's insult and convert them to compliments. In Chapter 6, Legends' Magic. This is one of the most important chapters, because we gave some brief explanations on other things and finally looked into the magic formula to come up with your personal conversations. We discussed the mighty EARTH formulas. The three types and gave an example of each. We have iEarth, EARTH, and EARTHics. In Chapter 7, Kidding, we gave a list of childish and stupid pick-up lines which will not make sense to men, but women will laugh when they hear some of them. We gave an example on iSHY wooing/chatting technique. In Chapter 8, Mindset. We talked on how you should not start a conversation from the beginning, but always from the middle. We talked on how to woo a lady you haven't seen before. We equally discussed how to use arrogance and humor to woo a lady. We discussed a good-bad boy and a typical bad boy and much more Finally, we revealed something that'll FOREVER change your life in the dating game and stay ahead of other men with picture illustrations. A secret you can't find anywhere online or offline. "Never worry about action, but only inaction." - Winston Churchill

How to Attract and Approach a Woman - Roman G. Turkowsky 2012-04-04

Picture this. If you are a guy that has spent any time in any place at all trying to talk to a woman, you know how this scene goes. You see the woman of your dreams. Okay, this may be a little exaggeration. But you see a pretty woman somewhere. Of course, when you see her, you naturally want to go talk to her. Thus far, you haven't done a thing wrong. You walk over to her and say hi. She greets you back, not incredibly interested. As pretty as she is, there is no doubt that she has been randomly approached by men that look just as good, if not better than you on a regular basis. This is just to be expected, no matter how good you think you look, or actually do. She is just used to it. You introduce yourself and offer your hand to shake. She accepts your hand and tells you her name. Once again, you are doing just fine. This is where the story starts to go downhill, though. There is an awkward pause as she looks at you expecting you to say something else. After all, you approached her. You try desperately to think of something to say. All that comes out is three strikes in a single question because you have nothing better to say. She answers you absently, and looks around for someone that she knows to talk to, greeting them from across the room. She smiles and takes off, politely casting a "nice to meet you" over her shoulder as she runs off with her friends, planning to talk about you when she gets over there and not talk to you for the rest of the night. And you have failed. Now, your question or statement, whatever it was, can be one of many different things. No matter what you said to her or asked her, the message portrayed was the same exact thing. And she read the message loud and clear. What was the message? It is simply: I have nothing to say. That is why she walked away from you without any interest whatsoever. That is why she will not remember your name in fifteen minutes, if she remembers it that long. And that is why you are going home alone.

Girl Talk - Julianna Baggott 2001-04-05

Lissy Jablonski was fifteen during the summer of 1985. That was the summer her father, a soft-spoken, seemingly passionless gynecologist, up and left her mother for a redheaded bank teller. The same summer Lissy and her mother disappeared from their quiet New Hampshire lives to have an adventure of their own amid a cast of unlikely characters, including a Valium-addicted ex-debutante and a suspected mobster. The summer the reliably comforting "girl talks" with her mother began to reveal startling secrets. It was also the summer that Lissy's mother would ever after refer to as "the summer that never happened." Now an almost-thirty-years-old advertising executive in Manhattan, faced with her father's imminent death and newly pregnant by her married ex-lover, an unmoored Lissy finds herself looking back across the years. Contending with her affections for an old boyfriend and his doomed marriage to a Korean stripper named Kitty Hawk, as well as the tangible legacies of that unmentionable summer with her mother, she realizes that she has become more like her mother than she ever could have imagined. In her debut novel, acclaimed short-story writer and poet Julianna Baggott has woven a precise, smartly comic, and compassionate tale of discovery and desire. With a lyrical sensibility, Baggott reminds us -- through the witty and unsparingly realistic voice of her narrator, Lissy -- of the pleasures and sorrows that can come from the most unreasonable realities of the heart.

Girl Talk - Slade Mills 2017-12-09

After you have acted like a lady and thought like a man; what do you do when realization dawns that he's just not that into you? It's time to pick up the shattered pieces of your broken heart and move the hell on, that's what you do. However, there's another woman who continues to hang on to the hope dangling in front of her because she was never the girlfriend/wife or the side piece that can somewhat accept the end of the relationship. No, this woman is the one that saw all the potential but never had the payoff of the committed relationship. And she can't let go. Why? Well, Gina, the Girlfriendchologist (a friend who has no degree whatsoever in the field of psychology) introduces the emotional abyss as an underlining reason why it may be hard to let go of what never was. No one ever wants to admit their most embarrassing escapades to the world so Gina has gathered up all of the sordid tales from her girlfriends and herself to help other sisters-in-love through their struggles. At times it may make you cringe with embarrassment; laugh out loud with ridiculousness, or simply cry but always gives the truth. Girl Talk: You're Just Not the One is definitely a must read if you just want to learn how to let go of a relationship that is never going to happen, was never happening and maybe just totally imagined.

The Drama Years - Haley Kilpatrick 2012-04-03

Today's middle school girls have it rough. In a few short years, they go through an incredible number of biological and emotional changes, making this the most formative—and riskiest—time in their lives. Groups turn on each other, a trusted childhood friend can reveal secrets by sending a text message or updating a Facebook status, and deciding where to sit in the cafeteria can be a daily struggle. As any tween will tell you, life for a middle school girl can be summed up in one word: drama. Haley Kilpatrick's own turbulent middle school experience inspired Girl Talk, a nonprofit organization in which high school mentors offer a "just been there" perspective to tween girls, helping them build self-esteem and develop leadership skills. Here, Haley delivers the definitive guidebook, packed with anecdotes from real girls around the country, who offer their insight into why her friends' approval is suddenly vitally important, why she feels pressured to be perfect, why she's no longer telling her parents everything, and what three vital things adults can offer to the girls in their lives to downplay the drama. Filled with practical strategies from tweens and teen mentors to help adults understand what girls today are facing, The Drama Years is a must-read for anyone struggling to help girls navigate the often difficult transition into adolescence.
