JOHN WHITING:: THE AGONY OF THE ABSURD Dr. Apeksha ,2021-01-15 This book is a complete and comprehensive projection of John Whiting as an absurdist playwright. It is a round and unvarnished story of a prodigious playwright who within a short span of his life, did much to outshine his contemporaries. His journey was not limited to stage and theatre. He also wrote for the films, television and even radio. The journey began with The Conditions of Agreement in 1946 and ended with The Devils in 1961. In between he wrote many landmark plays through which one can trace the evolutionary trajectory of a legend in the making who was a confluence of mind and mystery, love and revenge, sentimentality and blood lust. His plays are replete with sin and sleaze, callousness and collusion. This was because in Whiting, one also comes across the diminution of norms owing to ethical elasticity and dispensability of principles. In his plays the pathology of power is matched by the ethos of human failings as is exemplified by the rise and fall of Grandier in The Devils. Here the banality of power fails to keep distance between pretense and principles. Bereft of the romance of renewal and predictability, many of his plays end up on disjointed note in the best tradition of the theatre of the absurd. The playwright's obsession with pre-mediated violence creates a disconnect between storyline and characterization. In practically every plays of Whiting creates a heady cocktail of fear, violence, loathing and paranoia and yet they make for a compelling reading. This book is a summary of my findings regarding John Whiting with terse comments on his qualities as an absurdist playwright. It has been my endeavor to assess him both as a literary figure and a playwright, wedded to the absurdist tradition.

A Private Mythology Gabrielle Robinson,1988 John Whiting is shown to involve all his heroes in a monumental attack and immediate collapse, after which they retreat into exile with recluses. Seeking romantic rebellion, but unable to leave the protection of their sanctuaries, they live incoherently amid their dreams and anxieties.

Straight from the Mind, Body, Heart, Soul & Spirit: Street Poems and Inspired Spoken Word by God and Johnny Whiting Johnny Whiting,2014-03-24 May God bless us all. My name is Johnny Whiting I'm the oldest of three children, my mother was a single mom I grew up in the projects of Brick City, Newark, NJ. I started writing in 2002 and found that I have a God given talent for writing poems. I'm a man of God, saved by grace and I say this because after getting divorced in 2001 and being away from my daughter, I sort comfort in drugs and alcohol which of course destroyed my life. I was dying out in these streets, I came to New York in 2001-2002 and went to rehab and that's where I started to write. I also started to find my relationship with God after hearing people tell me I must do something with my poems I decided to write a poetry book, I pray whoever reads it is blessed and receives God's message that's through out the book. Amen.
