Emilio Castro Carlos A. Sintado,Manuel Quintero Pérez,2018 Life is marked by different stages, which are part of our ongoing pilgrimage...part of the mosaic of life that we are all building step by step. - Emilio Castro (1927-2013) This is the passionate and engaging story of the first Latin American to serve the World Council of Churches as general secretary. A fervent believer in the power of the spoken word, Emilio Castro used his oratorical abilities to call for social change and ecumenical engagement throughout a career that took him from his native Uruguay to the halls of world power. How apt it is then that this biography, based on an extensive series of interviews in 2006, includes Castro's own vivid re-telling of many of those moments. Carlos A. Sintado, from Argentina, is an ordained minister of the Methodist Church who worked in the WCC for more than 20 years and holds a doctorate from Drew University. Manuel Quintero Perez is an elder of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Cuba who has served the World Student Christian Federation, Latin American Council of Churches, and WCC. Tony Coates has been translating for the WCC since 1982. He is an ordained minister of the United Reformed Church in the United Kingdom.

African American Women Confront the West, 1600-2000 Quintard Taylor, Shirley Ann Wilson Moore,2008-08-01 Reconstructs the history of black women's participation in western settlement "A stellar collection of essays by talented authors who explore fascinating topics."—Journal of American Ethnic History African American Women Confront the West, 1600-2000 is the first major historical anthology on the topic. The editors argue that African American women in the West played active, though sometimes unacknowledged, roles in shaping the political, ideological, and social currents that have influenced the United States over the past three centuries. Contributors to this volume explore African American women's life experiences in the West, their influences on the experiences of the region's diverse peoples, and their legacy in rural and urban communities from Montana to Texas and from California to Kansas. The essayists explore what it has meant to be an African American woman, from the era of Spanish colonial rule in eighteenth-century New Mexico to the black power era of the 1960s and 1970s.

Media and Information Literacy Curriculum for Teachers: Curriculum and Competency Framework UNESCO, 2011

Recurso para conseguir los objetivos de la Grünwald Declaration (1982), la Alexandria Declaration (2005) y la UNESCO Paris Agenda (2007) - todas relativas a la alfabetización en medios. Su importancia radica en dos razones: primero, mira hacia el futuro, a partir de las tendencias actuales de convergencia en una sola plataforma de radio, television, Internet, prensa, libros, archivos y bibliotecas digitales - presentando, por tanto, MIL de una forma integrada. En segundo lugar, está diseñada específicamente para profesores y para su integración en un sistema de educación formal para profesores, lo que contribuirá a conformar las capacidades de millones de jóvenes.

Between Resistance and Adaptation Caroline Williams, 2005-01-01 Between Resistance and Adaptation explores the Spanish colonization of the Chocoacutec; a lowland region of present-day Colombia that was crucial to Spanish interests in Latin America because of its large gold deposits. Controlling the gold required the Spanish to subdue the native population of the Chocoacutec; the author considers the strategies used by the colonizers, as well as the subtle, pragmatic responses of indigenous peoples. This book will interest anyone studying the colonial history of Latin America and the struggle of indigenous peoples against colonial powers.
