phrases prepared in advance? One of the main problems when striking up a conversation with a woman is that everything seems to be going well and then suddenly her interest seems to simply disappear, her answers are shortened and you might even start feeling like a disaster, wishing you had the ability to know what she was thinking. It's happened to all of us some time or another that we don't know what to say when entering into a conversation or that there are some uncomfortable silences. The truth is that it is not as difficult as many think, and yet many men end up in boring conversations and girls rarely have unforgettable nights with them. Why? Because they end up doing the same boring, predictable, and tedious things that the last 100 previous guys did and they simply don't work. Imagine that one girl is on a date with a random guy she doesn't know and he starts asking her the same questions she always hears. "So where do you come from?", "What is your job?", "What do you study?", "Why did you choose that university?", "Where would you like to live?", "Where would you like to go on vacations?", or even talk about the WEATHER! Yes! That last one, definitely, is the topic of conversation of an unforgettable night ... The worst thing is that there is a belief that the solution to this is "openers" or pre-set phrases and I have to admit that I used to think that way too. Once a guy wrote to me: "If I just had a perfect phrase to start a conversation everything else would just flow." In the same way many men also look for that perfect phrase, that all-encompassing opener, in order to get attention instantly and make any girl attracted towards us ... but I'm sorry to say that it doesn't work this way. The people who unconsciously feel like techniques or pick-up phrases are necessary is because they do not feel good enough themselves to win the ladies' attention. The most successful men are those who don't put women above themselves. That way your game becomes simple and natural. In this book I will give you the tools to

True love doesn't just happen, notes professional matchmaker Patti Novak. You have to work for it—and want it. Forget eight-minute speed dates or online dating sites with twenty-page questionnaires that promise a scientifically calculated perfect match. The fact that you both like golf, stamp collecting, and pizza with anchovies is great, but it won't mean a thing if you don't feel that zing. But before there can be sparks, there have to be dates. Building Communities of Engaged Readers -

Teresa Cremin 2014-06-20

Reading for pleasure urgently requires a higher profile to raise attainment and increase children's engagement as self-motivated and socially interactive readers. Building Communities of Engaged Readers highlights the concept of 'Reading Teachers' who are not only knowledgeable about texts for children, but are aware of their own reading identities and prepared to share their enthusiasm and understanding of what being a reader means. Sharing the processes of reading with young readers is an innovative approach to developing new generations of readers. Examining the interplay between the 'will and the skill' to read, the book distinctively details a reading for pleasure pedagogy and demonstrates that reader engagement is strongly influenced by relationships between children, teachers, families and communities. Importantly it provides compelling evidence that reciprocal reading communities in school encompass: a shared concept of what it means to be a reader in the 21st century; considerable teacher and child knowledge of children's literature and other texts; pedagogic practices which acknowledge and develop diverse reader identities; spontaneous 'inside-text talk' on the part of all members; a shift in the focus of control and new social spaces that encourage choice and children's rights as readers. Written by experts in the literacy field and illustrated throughout with examples from the project schools, it is essential reading for all those concerned with improving young people's enjoyment of and attainment in reading.
