Chicken Soup for the Teenage Soul: The Real Deal Friends - Jack Canfield 2012-10-09
Friends. You gotta have 'em, but sometimes they drive you crazy. You love 'em, but sometimes they make you mad. They'll help you through a crisis...unless they are the crisis. So What's the Deal? Friends are more than just the people you hang out with. They make you laugh, they keep your secrets, they offer advice (some good, some bad), they give you a shoulder to cry on.

Sometimes they move away, or betray your trust, or flake out, but mostly they are the people who are always there for you. And they know you'll be there when they need you most. Because that's what it means to be a friend. Sometimes friendship is overwhelming, sometimes it's confusing, sometimes you feel like you don't have a friend in the world, but don't worry, it's like that for everyone. That's what the stories in this book are all about. They're from real teens, and they're about the bizarre, difficult and wonderful things that really happened to them and their friends. Put that together with weird facts, cool graphics, fun advice and quizzes designed to help you figure out what you and your friends are all about, and you've got the real deal on friendship!

My summer in Tokyo just got a lot hotter... Getting a real-life chance with your old high school crush doesn't happen every day. But then Finn O'Leary lends me five dollars and says I can buy him a coffee sometime to pay him back. I don't expect to be buying him coffee in Tokyo. That's what happens when your dad takes a job in Japan and drags you along for summer break. If I'd known Finn would be there, too, I'd have been thrilled, not resentful. Next thing I know, we're exploring the temples and tangled streets of Tokyo together - sharing painful truths about my dead mother and his sketchy past. But the biggest surprise? Finn doesn't think he deserves me. Even as we get close, he holds back, while I fall faster than a penny dropped from the top of Tokyo Tower. Unless I can convince him to see himself the way I see him, my heart is going to get crushed.
