Love to Date-Date to Love - Karla Erovick 2000-10

Sex in Silicon Valley - Kiana Tower 2001-11

Take an intimate peek into the Silicon Valley social scene. San Francisco Bay Area residents share true stories about dating, relationships and sex in the tech capital of the world. Here's a small sample: "There are so many intelligent, creative 'engineer' types who apply the same type of inventiveness to sex. There are amazing men sitting behind computers thinking about sex all day—hot and ready to go!" Yasmine, 32 "Each phone call had me peeling off my clothes little by little. I would be in my underwear by the time the phone call ended and I wouldn't sleep all night." Faith, 33 "We just couldn't wait any longer and ran into some Chinese dive bar in the Tenderloin. We went downstairs and screwed our brains out 'til the bar owner came and almost knocked the door down." Lucky, 32 "My friend suggested I go out and have a fling, so I thought I'd give it a shot. But where would I find someone to fling me?" Nicole, 30 "My boss's daughter was always walking around in tight skirts and low cut blouses. We ended up going down on each other, leaning right up against the copy equipment!" Stephanie, 24

The Global Silicon Valley Home - Shenglin Chang 2006

The Global Silicon Valley Home takes a close look at how residents (Taiwanese American high-tech engineer families) of the jet-set, wired-to-the-Net, trans-Pacific commuter culture have invented new ways of thinking about how their homes and landscapes reflect their personal identities—ways that enable them to make sense of "living life within two places at once."

Date-onomics - Jon Birger 2015-08-25

It's not that he's just not that into you—it's that there aren't enough of him. And the numbers prove it. Using a combination of demographics, statistics, game theory, and number-crunching, Date-onomics tells what every single, college-educated, heterosexual, looking-for-a-partner woman needs to know: The "man deficit" is real. It's a fascinating, if sobering read, with two critical takeaways: One, it's not you. Two, knowledge is power, so here's what to do about it. The shortage of college-educated men is not just a big-city phenomenon frustrating women in New York and L.A. Among young college grads, there are four eligible women for every three men nationwide. This unequal ratio explains not only why it's so hard to find a date, but a host of social issues, from the college hookup culture to the reason Salt Lake City is becoming the breast implant capital of America. Then there's the math that says that a woman's good looks can keep men from approaching her—particularly if they feel the odds aren't in their favor. Fortunately, there are also solutions: what college to attend (any with strong sciences or math), where to hang out (in New York, try a fireman's bar), where to live (Colorado, Seattle, "Man" Jose), and why never to shy away from giving an ultimatum.
