Moonchild - Three past Nine - Heike Thieme 2019-01-11

She has a quiet confidence, this is a love story. She is modest but strong. She is stable but rebellious. She gives, but not naively. She chooses her fight wisely. She'll stay silent until it's time to fight ... and when that time comes, she's fighting. The nicest thing about loving a guarded girl is when she lets you in, not because she needs you. She stopped taking people long ago. Because she wants you. And that is the purest love of all.

Mount Desolation - Carlton Dawe 2022-11-22

Mount Desolation by Carlton Dawe is about the adventures of young Mr. Tom Stanford and his young girlfriend as they explore the infamous Mount Desolation of Australia. Excerpt: "What a string of questions she asked, never waiting for a reply! Oh, yes—thus went her prattle—she had been to school at Melbourne, but not for the last two years. During that period she had been "out." She had not been to Koorabyn forever so long—not since she was fifteen. She was twenty now. Fancy!—wasn't she getting old?"

It's Not Love, It's Just Paris - Patricia Engel 2013-08-06

A spellbinding story of a young American abroad and a star-crossed relationship: "This is a novel to get lost in." —The Miami Herald Lita del Cielo is the daughter of two Colombian immigrants who arrived in America with nothing and made a fortune with their Latin food empire. Now Lita has been granted one year to pursue her studies in Paris before returning to work in the family business. She moves into a crumbling Left Bank mansion known as "The House of Stars," where the spirited but bedridden Countess Séraphine rents out rooms to young women visiting Paris to work, to study, and, unofficially, to find love. Cautious and guarded, Lita keeps a cool distance from the other girls, who seem at once boldly adult and impulsively naïve, who both intimidate and fascinate her. Then Lita meets Cato, and the contours of her world shift. Charming, enigmatic, and weak with illness, Cato is the son of a notorious right-wing politician. As Cato and Lita retreat to their own world, they soon find it difficult to keep the outside world from closing in on theirs. Ultimately Lita must decide whether to stay in France with Cato or return home to fulfill her family's dreams for her future. From the author of Vida, a finalist for the PEN/Hemingway Award, It's Not

Love, It's Just Paris is a love story, a portrait of a Paris caught between the old world and the new, and an exploration of one woman's journey to lay claim to her own life. "Wise and accomplished . . . Beautifully written." —The New York Times Book Review

a sympathetic coming-of-age story... Cheries romantic misadventures are relatable throughout, reflecting the experiences of co-eds experiencing their first brushes with adult love. An often cynical look at college years and romance, The Torch Bearers Exorcism is a cautionary tale about getting too swept up in what looks like love. Clarion Foreword Review
The Torch Bearers Exorcism starts at the close of the 1980s. Cherie is an unusually private and guarded girl with a nonconforming sense of style and a habit of constantly doubting everything around her. When she meets David during her first week on campus her emotions go into overdrive. Hes exactly what she would have asked for if it were possible to wish people into existence. They seem to be two sides of a coin. But does he actually care about her? David is an outgoing, attractive and popular guy with rather a lot more experience in the world than ingnue Cherie. Swept up by passion, subterfuge, confusion and magnetism; Cherie must untangle what she feels and whether she can believe his love for her is real. This is a story about painful love, being a young woman in a less egalitarian time, betrayal and overcoming it. About learning the hard way that people arent always what they seem or what we hoped they would be. About healing and growing into independence.

Alone Together - Henry Berlin 2021-06-29

The turn of the fifteenth century saw an explosion of literature throughout Iberia that was not just sentimental, but about sentiment. Alone Together reveals the political, ethical, and poetic dimensions of this phenomenon, which was among the most important of the substantial changes in intellectual and literary culture taking place in the crowns of Portugal, Castile, and Aragon. With careful analyses of lyric poetry, sentimental prose, and wide-ranging treatises in multiple languages, this study foregrounds the dense web of relations among these genres and linguistic and cultural traditions. Drawing on Stoic and early monastic thought, authors such as the Marqués de Santillana, Ausiàs March, and Alfonso de Madrigal explored the unifying potential of shared emotion in an ethical rehabilitation that cut across the personal and political, exalting friendly conversation, civic communication, and collective poetic composition. In his readings of these authors, Henry Berlin references recent work on lyric theory and the history and theory of emotion, from classical antiquity to the modern day. An exploration of the political and poetic potential of shared emotion, Alone Together shows how a heuristic focus on the notion of passion is illuminating for broader ongoing discussions about the nature of emotion, the lyric, and subjectivity.
